Matched by Mistake Hanna Jo Abbott, 2025 I wasn't looking for love Usually I'm just looking for my keys that I've lost for the millionth time Instead I found a business card for a matchmaking service Since my own dating history is a spectacular dumpster fire of crazy I figured why not let someone else find me the perfect guy After filling out a questionnaire longer than my college application the one for a college I never attended I'm pretty sure this matchmaker knows me better than my own mother Surely she can find my match The only problem He's nothing like me Ethan is all about five year plans and organized spreadsheets And I have five part time jobs because I get bored easily He overanalyzes everything and I haven't read the fine print in my life I'm not sure we belong in the same universe let alone on a date But the matchmaking service must know something I don't right Either that or I just paid good money to be completely totally and epically wrong about love again
