Naechstes Jahr In Jerusalem Roman:

The Germanic Mosaic Carol A. Blackshire-Belay, 1993-12-07 This is a comprehensive and up to date critical examination of cultural diversity in Germanic speaking societies It goes beyond ethnic religious and gender stereotypes to show minority groups as active participants in German history rather than as passive victims This collection of critical and theoretical essays seeks to interpret the current philosophical aesthetic and literary thinking about diversity in literature and language The book is divided into four parts literary analyses of works produced by members of minority populations linguistic discussions and case studies of minority groups structures and strategies of discourse and prejudice and studies of remedies for problems of racism and discrimination Some of the most significant writers and thinkers in the field have contributed making this volume of critical concern to scholars and students of German modern languages and comparative studies
