Narrative Writing In Australian And Chinese Schools:

Narrative Writing in Australian and Chinese Schools Judy W. Y. Ho, 2002 The book adopts a crosslinguistic and crosscultural approach to narrative analysis Concepts of narrative are explored through a contrastive study of its expressions in English and Chinese and through a comparison of the contexts of production Narratives written by Grade 5-6 students were collected from primary schools in Sydney and in Hong Kong Their structural, ideational and stylistic characteristics were contrasted within a synthesized framework of Western and Chinese narrative traditions the Labovian model, Halliday's systemic functional grammar, critical discourse analysis and genre theory The socio-cultural context was analyzed by examining curriculum documents and by investigating teachers' beliefs and teaching practices through surveys, interviews and observations The book shows that the meaning of narrative has to be interpreted within a suprastructure which embodies the expectations, norms and values of a specific culture It is a powerful statement of how schools as social and cultural institutions mediate the production of narrative texts and transmit larger cultural values through specific practices The study makes a substantial contribution to the field for its combination of empirical detail and theoretical breadth and for its demonstration of how textual and linguistic structures arise from and make sense within divergent social and institutional contexts

Applied Linguistics ,2004 Chinese Language Education and Second Language Chinese Acquisition

Jing Jin, Sihui (Echo) Ke, 2025-01-14 This edited volume presents the latest scholarly endeavors to synergize Chinese linguistics with Chinese language education and L2 Chinese acquisition a direction of inquiry that has emerged as a rapidly developing area and attracted both teaching practitioners and linguists' interests in recent years The studies presented in the volume approach a diversity of issues ranging over linguistics informed Chinese language education in the contexts of Hong Kong, mainland China and overseas countries language pedagogies along various linguistic approaches L2 Chinese development of different linguistic properties bilingualism and multilingualism among adult and school learners as well as linguistically grounded Chinese language learning and teaching via digital means The volume offers to deepen the reader's understanding of the existing theories on Chinese language education and L2 Chinese acquisition and the linguistic theories regarding the nature, component modules and development of the human language faculty It also offers new pedagogical inspiration based on cutting edge empirical research for Chinese language teaching in different educational settings Of interest to scholars in the fields of Chinese language teaching and learning, second language acquisition or applied linguistics this volume contributes to the emerging field of educational applications of linguistics and presents an overarching framework that bridges a long lasting division between language teaching practice and linguistic research

Researching Chinese Language Education Mark Shiu-kee Shum, Peter Mickan, 2018-09-13 The culmination of more than a decade of research this compelling volume offers a fresh approach for applying functional linguistics to assess student performance to inform the teaching and learning of Chinese and to design curriculum and teaching materials Documenting authentic systemic functional linguistics SFL studies in researching and teaching Chinese as a first or second language this research is set in the multilingual settings of Hong Kong and Australia The experiences of SFL and genre teaching in English have been well demonstrated as valid viable and practical in different contexts however this volume covers the relatively new domain of research into the applications of SFL to the teaching of Chinese Using SFL as the research framework the authors cover three major areas in Chinese language education effective pedagogies curriculum and material design and text analysis Covering major local curriculum reforms and the rapid growth of International Baccalaureate programmes worldwide this book will be of interest to linguists language teachers and teacher educators and those involved in the teaching and learning of Chinese around the world

Language Teachers' Narratives of Practice Lesley Harbon,Robyn Moloney,2014-08-26

Language Teachers Narratives of Practice is a collection of seventeen essays that examine personal and professional stories of and by language teachers in diverse Australian contexts The voices of twenty one Australian language teachers in all describe teachers own linguistic and cultural personal and professional narratives and how each narrative has informed the construction of their classroom language teaching practice to suit their teaching contexts We see how teachers make individual responses to emerging pedagogies developed through the lens of their personal experience and understanding of language and culture In our invitations to these teachers to contribute chapters to the book we have encouraged them to make visible the diversity within the Australian language teaching context This is a new resource for use in a professional development context for pre service teachers in service teachers tertiary teacher educators and researchers This resource will serve as a practical text for teachers to draw on to extend their own professional knowledge and classroom practice in relevant useful and diverse areas The narratives can be examined as case studies of teacher identity and life worlds development of pedagogies intercultural learning and the differentiation and adaptation needed in particular environments within a diverse environment such as Australia

Narrative Writing In Australian And Chinese Schools Introduction

In today's digital age, the availability of Narrative Writing In Australian And Chinese Schools books and manuals for download has revolutionized the way we access information. Gone are the days of physically flipping through pages and carrying heavy textbooks or manuals. With just a few clicks, we can now access a wealth of knowledge from the comfort of our own homes or on the go. This article will explore the advantages of Narrative Writing In Australian And Chinese Schools books and manuals for download, along with some popular platforms that offer these resources. One of the significant advantages of Narrative Writing In Australian And Chinese Schools books and manuals for download is the cost-saving aspect. Traditional books and manuals can be costly, especially if you need to purchase several of them for educational or professional purposes. By accessing Narrative Writing In Australian And Chinese Schools versions, you eliminate the need to spend money on physical copies. This not only saves you money but also reduces the environmental impact associated with book production and transportation. Furthermore, Narrative Writing In Australian And Chinese Schools books and manuals for download are incredibly convenient. With just a computer or smartphone and an internet connection, you can access a vast library of resources on any subject imaginable. Whether you're a student looking for textbooks, a professional seeking industry-specific manuals, or someone interested in self-improvement, these digital resources provide an efficient and accessible means of acquiring knowledge. Moreover, PDF books and manuals offer a range of benefits compared to other digital formats. PDF files are designed to retain their formatting regardless of the device used to open them. This ensures that the content appears exactly as intended by the author, with no loss of formatting or missing graphics. Additionally, PDF files can be easily annotated, bookmarked, and searched for specific terms, making them highly practical for studying or referencing. When it comes to accessing Narrative Writing In Australian And Chinese Schools books and manuals, several platforms offer an extensive collection of resources. One such platform is Project Gutenberg, a nonprofit organization that provides over 60,000 free eBooks. These books are primarily in the public domain, meaning they can be freely distributed and downloaded.

Project Gutenberg offers a wide range of classic literature, making it an excellent resource for literature enthusiasts. Another popular platform for Narrative Writing In Australian And Chinese Schools books and manuals is Open Library. Open Library is an initiative of the Internet Archive, a non-profit organization dedicated to digitizing cultural artifacts and making them accessible to the public. Open Library hosts millions of books, including both public domain works and contemporary titles. It also allows users to borrow digital copies of certain books for a limited period, similar to a library lending system.

Additionally, many universities and educational institutions have their own digital libraries that provide free access to PDF books and manuals. These libraries often offer academic texts, research papers, and technical manuals, making them invaluable resources for students and researchers. Some notable examples include MIT OpenCourseWare, which offers free access to course materials from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and the Digital Public Library of America, which provides a vast collection of digitized books and historical documents. In conclusion, Narrative Writing In Australian And Chinese Schools books and manuals for download have transformed the way we access information. They provide a cost-effective and convenient means of acquiring knowledge, offering the ability to access a vast library of resources at our fingertips.
