The Narrow House \(Classic Reprint\)

Evelyn Scott, 2015-07-14 Excerpt from The Narrow House The hot bright street looked almost deserted A sign swung before the disheveled building at the corner and on a purple ground one could read the notice Robinson Son Builders painted in tall white letters Some broken plaster had been thrown from one of the windows and lay on the dusty sidewalk in a glaring heap The old fashioned house next door was as badly in need of improvements as the one undergoing alterations The dingy brick walls were streaked by the drippage from the leaky tin gutter that ran along the roof The massive shutters thrown back from the long windows were rotting away Below the lifted panes very clean worn curtains hung slack like things exhausted by the heat Some papers had been thrust in the tin letter box before the clumsy dark green door and as Mrs Farley emerged from the house she stopped to glance at them before descending to the street About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Houses of Boston's Back Bay Bainbridge Bunting, 1967 Sociologically speaking the Back Bay is Boston's fashionable residential quarter or so it was until the great depression of 1929 began the gradual conversion of its aristocratic dwellings to more modest uses Occupying about two hundred acres in the center of the greater filled region the limits of this smaller area are the river the Public Garden Boylston Street and Fenway Park The Back Bay is interesting to Bostonian and visitor of the present day for a variety of reasons Some will look at the area as a remarkably complete example of nineteenth century American architecture Some people with a sociological interest will study the area's changes in property use and occupancy over the last thirty five years and try to foresee the role the Back Bay is to play in the future development of the metropolitan center Still others are concerned with the area as a convenient place to live or with property values and tax rates With a precision almost unique in American history the buildings of the Back Bay chart the course of architectural development for more than half a century

Introduction    Farm Mechanics ... ,1929    The Ladies' Repository ,1861 The idea of this women's magazine originated with Samuel Williams a Cincinnati Methodist who thought that Christian women needed a magazine less worldly than Godey's Lady's Book and Snowden's Lady's Companion Written largely by ministers this exceptionally well printed little magazine contained well written essays of a moral character plenty of poetry articles on historical and scientific matters and book reviews Among western writers were Alice Cary who contributed over a hundred sketches and poems her sister Phoebe Cary Otway Curry Moncure D Conway and Joshua R Giddings and New England contributors included Mrs Lydia Sigourney Hannah F Gould and Julia C R Dorr By 1851 each issue published a piece of music and two steel plates usually landscapes or portraits When Davis E Clark took over the editorship in 1853 the magazine became brighter and attained a circulation of 40 000 Unlike his predecessors Clark included fictional pieces and made the Repository a magazine for the whole family After the war it began to decline and in 1876 was replaced by the National Repository The Ladies Repository was an excellent representative of the Methodist mind and heart Its essays sketches and poems its good steel engravings and its moral tone gave it a charm all its own Cf American periodicals 1741 1900

Disclosing Intertextualities Martha Celeste Carpentier, Bárbara Ozieblo, 2006 For the first time this volume brings together essays by feminist Americanist and theater scholars who apply a variety of sophisticated critical approaches to Susan Glaspell's entire oeuvre Glaspell's one act play Trifles and the short story that she constructed from it A Jury of Her Peers have drawn the attention of many feminist critics but the rest of her writing the short stories plays and novels is largely unknown The essays gathered here will allow students of literature women's studies and theater studies an insight into the variety and scope of her oeuvre Glaspell's political and literary thinking was radicalized by the turbulent Greenwich Village environment of the first decades of the twentieth century by progressive era social movements and by modernist literary and theatrical innovation The focus of Glaspell studies has till recently been dominated by the feminist imperative to recover a canon of silenced women writers and in particular to restore Glaspell to her rightful place in American drama Transcending the limitations generated by such a specific agenda the contributors to this volume approach Glaspell s work as a dialogic intersection of genres texts and cultural phenomena a method that is particularly apt for Glaspell who moved between genres with a unique fluidity creating such modernist masterpieces as The Verge or Brook Evans This volume establishes Glaspell s work as an intersection of textual surfaces resulting for the first time in the complex aesthetic appreciation that her varied life s work merits
