Residential Work with Offenders Emma

Wincup,2019-07-16 This title was first published in 2002 Throughout the book reflexive accounts of practice gathered from qualitative research in four different types of bail and probation hostels women only women only with provision for children mixed and men only are used to argue that the combination of working with a difficult client group in a difficult setting creates a unique blend of professional and personal anxieties These reflexive accounts are located within their broader social and criminal justice context and analyzed in relation to contemporary criminological and sociological debates The result is a detailed insight into the everyday world of bail and probation hostels covering issues such as managing risk and violence coping with stress and evaluating practice

Rehabilitating and Resettling Offenders in the Community Anthony H.

Goodman,2012-05-25 Rehabilitating and Resettling Offenders in the Community is a significant examination of the historical development of work with offenders and their treatment by the state and society It offers unique perspectives and a wealth of information drawn from numerous interviews with probation staff Highlights how the work of probation staff has changed over time and the reasons behind these changes Includes discourse with probation staff carried out over many years for a comprehensive insiders view of the situation Focuses on contemporary issues including the changes brought in by the Conservative Liberal Democrat coalition Written by a leading academic with extensive experience in the probation service

Ulrich's International Periodicals Directory Carolyn Farquhar Ulrich,1999

Researching Violence Raymond M.

Lee,Elizabeth A Stanko,2014-06-11 Violence is a research topic that is fraught with difficulties A notoriously sensitive subject and one that is presumed to be largely hidden researchers have long struggled with the question of how to measure its impact and how to explore its incidence Arising from the ESRC s Violence Research Programme Researching Violence is a practical guide both to theses problems and to the obstacles encountered when negotiating this uneasy terrain Comprising the reflections of researchers who have worked on diverse projects from violence in the home to racial violence and homicide this book demonstrates the ingenuity and at times courageous actions of researchers having to think on their feet It also investigates the ethical and emotional issues arising from working with the victims and perpetrators of violence This book will be indispensable for students and academics doing research projects on violence

Effective Practice in Youth Justice

Martin Stephenson,Henri Giller,Sally Brown,2013-05-13 Youth justice has become an increasingly important part of the criminal justice system and has faced a wide range of challenges in the last few years Practice within the youth justice system has become increasingly professionalized with important roles being played locally by Youth Offending Teams and custodial establishments and centrally by the Youth Justice Board YJB Key to the professionalisation of the workforce has been the YJB's Effective Practice Strategy and associated HR and Learning strategy that seeks to enable youth offending services and individual practitioners within them to work in ways that are evidence based and informed by the most reliable and up to date research This book is an amalgamation significant update and revision of a series of Readers in the key areas of effective practice identified by the YJB It draws together the best available research in each of eleven key areas of practice considers the principles of effective practice as they relate to those areas and identifies the challenges for those working in the youth justice system The book is an essential resource for people working within the youth justice system those training to work in youth justice and students taking courses in youth justice as part of criminology or criminal justice degrees Providing a comprehensive and up to date review of research and the implications for practice it is designed to meet the needs of students taking YJB sponsored courses with the Open University in particular K208 the Professional Certificate in Effective Practice which forms part of a wider Foundation Degree Policy Networks in Criminal Justice M. Ryan,S. Savage,D. Wall,2001-09-05 Policy Networks in Criminal Justice is a comprehensive and challenging collection of studies on the workings of pressure groups in criminal justice and the articulation of pressure group politics and criminal justice policymaking Against a back cloth of policy networks theory the authors examine the role and activities of professional associations in the areas of policing probation law and the courts together with campaigning groups such as those in the areas of penal reform civil liberties and victims In addition the book includes a study of the growing role of local authorities in the world of criminal justice Offending Behaviour Programmes Emma J. Palmer,2006-10-02 Part of the Wiley Series in Forensic Clinical Psychology Offending Behaviour Programmes Development Application and Controversies explores the subject at two levels the technical issues associated with designing and implementing programs and the broader issues surrounding programs such as the impact on practitioners Each chapter covers theory research practice and evaluation

The Welsh Criminal Justice System Robert Jones,Richard Wyn Jones,2022-10-15 This study represents the first systematic attempt to explore the functioning of the policing and criminal justice system in post devolution Wales Its particular relevance is underscored by the revelation that Wales has the highest imprisonment rate in western Europe Drawing on official data as well as extensive interviews with senior figures this book represents the first systematic exploration of the operation of the justice system in Wales across the jagged edge of devolved and non devolved functions There remains little understanding of how the justice system operates in the anomalous circumstances of post devolution Wales This book aims to fill this gap in understanding and concludes with an assessment of the proposals of the Commission on Justice in Wales for reform Current British Directories ,2003 The Routledge Handbook of Irish Criminology Deirdre Healy,Claire Hamilton,Yvonne Daly,Michelle Butler,2015-12-14 This book charts the contours of the criminological enterprise in Ireland and brings together internationally recognized experts to discuss theory research policy and practice on a range of topics and in an international context      NAPO Probation Directory ,1978      Ulrich's Periodicals Directory 2003
