Napolo And The Python:

Napolo and the Python Steve Bernard Miles Chimombo,1994 Napolo the mythical serpent that lives under mountains and is associated with landslides earthquakes and floods in Malawi inspired the poems in this collection Napolo lives on and still has an impact on Malawians today as evidenced by a recent reggae hit about the great Python Napolo also lives on in the poems of Steve Chimombo

Of Life, Love and Death Steve Chimombo,2021-12-31 Innovative interesting out of the ordinary are accolades used to describe the stories in Of Life Love and Death They grew out the turbulent years of Malawi s third republic through the years beyond to the second and into the third and reflect the times places and concerns of the people at all times Some were molded if not mutilated by the oppressive political climate Malawi experienced in the thirty years of Banda s first republic between 1964 and 1994 Some of them could not have been conceived and written during that period without reprisals from the all powerful Censorship Board which dictated what could or could not be published Others were written but denied publication until the more democratic era after 1994

The Hyena Wears Darkness Chimombo, Steve,2017-08-16 Some people often ignore the fact that writers respond to the HIV AIDS pandemic by using it as a theme in their poetry fiction and plays Steve Chimombo started recording the writers responses as early as 1990 and wrote AIDS and the Writer in WASI the magazine for the arts The article reported the results of a poetry competition organized by the Ministry of Health on the theme and there have been other competitions also by different institutions since then Some radio and television programs have also called upon the writer to help in the dissemination of information to their listeners The Hyena Wears Darkness is the author s own contribution to the national Malawian campaign to educate the public on the pandemic Its focus is on those cultural practices which help propagate HIV AIDS in Malawian society

African Writers Bridgette Kasuka,2013-05 This work looks at some African writers including those who are not well known to show the potential and diversity in the works produced by Africans Included is a profile of Chinua Achebe and commentaries on his works soon after he passed away

Operation Kalulu Steve Chimombo,2021-07-21 Operation Kalulu the story of the Hare and the Well was the first of the retold folk stories by Steve Chimombo Folk stories are timeless in their relevance each illustrating good and bad character traits and behaviour in a variety of situations This story presents us with a community experiencing a drought and the way in which they pull together to find a solution In the course of the process we see how the animals human like in both character and behaviour sort out issues of governance to the satisfaction of the entire community

From Home and Exile Joanna Woods,2014-12-03 This book is about home With Malawi as its focus it seeks to understand ideas about home as expressed through poetry written by Malawians in English Although African Literatures are studied those of Malawi have not received agreeable attention This book surveys poetry by five Malawian writers Felix Mnthali Frank Chipasula Jack Mapanje Lupenga Mphande and Steve Chimombo The discussion negotiates scribed experience of exile engendered by Dr Bandas regime and shows that the selected poets effectively converse with a sense of home reflecting on its transformations in their work Interrogating the strict definitions of home the argument highlights that far from home less exiles in fact clarify the sense of what home is The manoeuvre is one of thinking towards an unboundaried home This book will be of value not only to readers interested in the cultures of Africa but to all those with an interest in worldwide literary phenomena and ideas therein of home and exile The Wrath of Napoléon Steve Bernard Miles

Chimombo,2000 In the novel the protagonist Chilungamo Nkhoma an investigative reporter embarks on learning how the ship was grounded But instead he discovers that there are peoples and institutions with vested interests in concealing the truth They will take great pains to do so and Nkhoma his family and friends find themselves targets for hit squads As Nkhoma retraces the original voyage of the ship his mission assumes ethnic trans national and racial dimensions His seemingly simple assignment grows into a process which resembles a national truth commission Events culminate in a mass rally of the major political parties on the shore of the lake Reading Contemporary African Literature Reuben Makayiko Chirambo,J. K. S.

Makokha,2013 Reading Contemporary African Literature brings together scholarship on critical debates about and examples of reading African literature in all genres poetry fiction and drama including popular culture The anthology offers studies of African literature from interdisciplinary perspectives that employ sociological historical and ethnographic besides literary analysis of the literatures It has assembled critical and researched essays on a range of topics theoretical and empirical by renowned critics and theorists of African literature that evaluate and provide examples of reading African literature that should be of interest to academics researchers and students of African literature culture and history amongst other subjects Some of the essays examine authors that have received little or no attention to date in books on recent African literature These essays provide new insights and scholarship that should broaden and deepen our understanding and appreciation of African literature Encyclopedia of African Literature Simon Gikandi,2003-09-02 The most comprehensive reference work on African literature to date this book contains over 600 entries that cover criticism and theory its development as a field of scholarship and studies of established and lesser known writers Student Encyclopedia of African Literature Douglas

Killam,Alicia L. Kerfoot,2007-12-30 African literature is a vast subject of growing output and interest Written especially for students this book selectively surveys the topic in a clear and accessible way Included are roughly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on writers genres and major works Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Africa is a land of contrasts and of diverse cultures and traditions It is also a land of conflict and creativity The literature of the continent draws upon a fascinating body of oral traditions and lore and also reflects the political turmoil of the modern world With the increased interest in cultural diversity and the growing centrality of Africa in world politics African literature is figuring more and more prominently in the curriculum This book helps students learn about the African literary achievement Written expressly for students this book is far more accessible than other reference works on the subject Included are nearly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on authors such as Chinua Achebe Athol

Fugard Buchi Emecheta Nadine Gordimer and Wole Soyinka major works such as Things Fall Apart and Petals of Blood and individual genres such as the novel drama and poetry Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography WASI ,1996 The magazine for the arts Water Beings Veronica Strang,2023-04-19 Looking to the vast human history of water worship a crucial study of our broken relationship with all things aquatic and how we might mend it Early human relationships with water were expressed through beliefs in serpentine aquatic deities rainbow colored feathered or horned serpents giant anacondas and dragons Representing the powers of water these beings were bringers of life and sustenance world creators ancestors guardian spirits and lawmakers Worshipped and appeased they embodied people's respect for water and its vital role in sustaining all living things Yet today though we still recognize that water is life fresh and saltwater ecosystems have been critically compromised by human activities This major study of water beings and what has happened to them in different cultural and historical contexts demonstrates how and why some but not all societies have moved from worshipping water to wreaking havoc upon it and asks what we can do to turn the tide The Bird Boy's Song ,2002 This is a modern rendition in written form of the popular Malawian folktale The Orphan and the Slave passed down through oral tradition The traditional version included alongside this modern work of fiction tells of a boy who is orphaned and returns to his village taking his slave with him The slave tricks the boy into giving him his possessions and assumes his master's identity The boy must henceforth do the slave's work scaring away the birds from the crops But the songs the boy sings as he works reveal his true identity When his family realise the truth the deceptive and worthless slave is punished as he is torn into pieces and thrown into the river In the modern setting an orphaned boy Dzunzo returns to his village with his slave who similarly assumes the orphan's identity Dzunzo loves his slave who has taught him much about the natural world the slave suffers from epilepsy and so is considered bewitched by the villagers When the relatives find out the true identities of the boys they are very angry tie up the slave in a granary and threaten to kill him In the modern story however the orphan recognises the slave's good character and decides to free him The author is a popular Malawian writer of fiction and poetry well known for retelling traditional folk stories in modern literary forms and as literary critic
