In Defense of Doctrine Rhyne R. Putman, 2015 In Defense of Doctrine is an apologetic for the ongoing constructive theological task in Protestant and Evangelical traditions It suggests that doctrinal development can be explained as a hermeneutical phenomenon and that insights from hermeneutical philosophy and the philosophy of language can aid theologians in constructing explanatory theses for particular theological problems associated with the facts of doctrinal development Joining the recent call to theological interpretation of Scripture Putman provides a constructive model that forwards a descriptive and normative pattern for reading Scripture and theological tradition together
