Narrative Theology After Auschwitz From Alienation To Ethics:

Narrative Theology After Auschwitz Darrell J. Fasching, 1999 Narrative Theology After Auschwitz addresses the pressing question of the failure of Christian ethics during the Holocaust. Its concern is to understand how and why so many Christians and Christian churches either cooperated with the Nazis or stood passively by while six million Jews were slaughtered. The goal is to uproot the propensity of Christians to equate ethics with unquestioning obedience to authority and replace it with an Abrahamic chutzpah or audacity to question all authority even God if necessary in defense of the dignity of the stranger.

Narrative Theology After Auschwitz Darrell J. Fasching, 1992 Amidst the tumult and confusion of the times John W. Aldridge has kept a singular purity of vision said the New York Times Book Review. While the changing editorial policies of the major book reviews and magazines threaten to make serious literary criticism a thing of the past Aldridge still believes that books and their ideas have a living relation to daily life. Taken together these essays offer not only a survey of John Aldridge's distinguished career as a critic but also an intriguing picture of the evolution of contemporary literature.

BOOK JACKET The Protestant Ethic and the Spirit of Punishment T. Richard Snyder, 2001 Snyder shows that the spirit of punishment in our culture is rooted in and reinforced by popular Christian misunderstandings of human nature and God's grace. These misunderstandings include two consequential errors: the absence of any notion of creation grace and an understanding of redemption grace couched exclusively in individualistic internalized and nonhistorical terms. In both cases the social historical dimensions of grace necessary for holistic redemption are ignored.

Publisher Explorations In Global Ethics Sumner B. Twiss, 2018-03-08 Inspired by the 1993 Parliament of the Worlds Religions this volume for the first time brings the scholarly discipline of comparative religious ethics into constructive collaboration with the community of interreligious dialogue. The contributors draw from both communities of discourse in addressing questions of method and theory and global moral issues such as human rights, distributive justice, politics of war, international business, the environment and genocide in a cross cultural context. Inspired by the 1993 Parliament of the Worlds Religions this volume for the first time brings the scholarly discipline of comparative religious ethics into constructive collaboration with the community of interreligious dialogue. Its design is premised on two important insights. First, interreligious dialogue offers to comparative religious ethics a new more persuasive rationale, agenda of issues and practical orientation. Second, comparative religious ethics offers to interreligious dialogue an arsenal of critical tools and methods which will enhance the sophistication of its practical work. In this way both theory, a dominant concern and strength of comparative religious ethics and praxis, a dominant concern and strength of interreligious moral dialogue are joined together in mutual effort each contributing to the benefit of the other. The volumes contributors share this vision of collaboration drawing explicitly from both communities of discourse in a manner that crosses disciplinary and professional boundaries to deal creatively and constructively with important methodological and global moral issue. Although theory and practice cannot easily be separated in such a collaborative project for the purpose of clarity the volume is divided into two main parts The first specifically engages questions of method theory and the social role of the public intellectual the second on substantive moral themes and issues many of which were raised at the 1993 Parliament Taken together the volumes essays articulate and illustrate new ways of approaching contemporary moral concerns cross culturally yet with a rigor appropriate to our complex and pluralistic world

On the Way to Death Arthur Roy Eckardt, On the Way to Death completes Eckardt's astonishing trilogy on the interrelationship of comedy death and God It addresses itself to the question of death as the basic incongruity of life Here is opened to human view the final divine comedy a total reversal of the traditional roles assigned to God and humankind a comical denouncement of the terror of death On the Way to Death follows Sitting in the Earth and Laughing and How to Tell God From the Devil to complete A Roy Eckardt's trilogy on comedy the devil and God Soren Kierkegaard attests that it is only by the deepest suffering that one acquires true authority in the use of the comic Composed within this frame of reference the foundation of this volume is its analysis of the terror of death for human beings In this context Eckardt maintains that the all decisive truth is that humankind never asked to be but has been thrown into existence Accordingly it is immoral or even diabolical to blame human beings for the terrible evils of life including the specter of death Human beings are proximately responsible for evil but never ultimately responsible

The Coming of the Millennium Darrell J. Fasching, 2001-01-15

Throughout the last two millennia Christianity understood its divinely mandated mission to be to conquer the world for Christ Too often this proclamation led Christians to imagine that their goal must be the elimination of all non Christians from the world through conversion or when that fails through coercion and violence e g the Inquisition the Crusades anti Semitic persecution Western colonialism etc At the beginning of the third millennium and an age of global diversity Darrell J

Fasching argues that it is time for Christians to reject this view of their mission along with the trail of prejudice and violence it has created and replace militaristic metaphors of conquest with the biblical message of hospitality to the stranger When we welcome the stranger according to biblical teachings we welcome God Genesis 18 1 5 the Messiah Matthew 25 35 or an angel of God Hebrews 13 2 Fasching takes us on a journey through the stories of the Bible to show that diversity is God's covenant intention for humanity Consequently the mission of Christians must not be to convert or eliminate non Christians but rather to welcome them as strangers for a world without strangers is a world without God
