Man on His Past Herbert Butterfield,1955 Man on his past Herbert Butterfield,1960 Man on His Past Herbert Butterfield,1955 Herbert Butterfield and the Interpretation of History K. Sewell,2005-01-13 This book examines successive stages in the development of the thought of Sir Herbert Butterfield in relation to fundamental issues in the science of history In a carefully nuanced way it lays bare the unspoken motivations and hidden tensions in Butterfield s debate with himself and with a host of contemporary historians in the period between 1924 79 Man on His Past Herbert Butterfield,1955 Man on His Past Herbert Butterfield,1955 The Life and Thought of Herbert Butterfield Michael Bentley,2011-04-21 Once recalled only for The Whig Interpretation of History 1931 and Christianity and History 1949 Sir Herbert Butterfield s contribution to western culture has undergone an astonishing revaluation over the past twenty years What has been left out of this reappraisal is the man himself Yet the force of Butterfield s writings is weakened without some knowledge of the man behind them his temperament contexts and personal torments Previous authors have been unable to supply a rounded portrait for lack of available material particularly a dearth of sources for the crucial period before the outbreak of war in 1939 Michael Bentley s original startling 2011 biography draws on sources never seen before They enable him to present a new Butterfield one deeply troubled by self doubt driven by an urgent sexuality and plagued by an unending tension between history science and God in a mind as hard and cynical as it was loving and charitable Biographical Memoirs of Fellows, I Thompson,2003-01-16 Volume 115 of the Proceedings of the British Academy contains 20 obituaries of recently deceased Fellows of the British Academy and an essay on James Bryce President of the Academy 1913 1917 Memoirs of Fellows have previously been published in the same annual Proceedings volume as that containing the British Academy s Lectures The Biographical Memoirs are henceforth to be published in a volume of their own within the Proceedings sequence Herbert Butterfield C.T. McIntire,2008-10-01 Herbert Butterfield 1900 1979 was an important British historian and religious thinker whose ideas in particular his concept of a Whig interpretation of history remain deeply influential In this intellectual biography the first comprehensive study of Butterfield C T McIntire focuses on the creative processes that lay behind Butterfield s intellectual accomplishments Drawing on his investigations into Butterfield s vast and diverse output of published and unpublished work McIntire explores Butterfield s ideas and methods He describes Butterfield s lifelong devotion to his Methodist faith and shows how his Christian spirituality animated his historical work He also traces the theme of dissent that ran through Butterfield s life and work presenting a man who found himself at odds with prevailing convictions about history morality politics religion and teaching a man who elevated the notion of dissent into an ethic of living in tension with any established system Hugh Trevor-Roper Blair Worden,2015-01-02 Hugh Trevor Roper was one of the most gifted historians of the twentieth century His scholarly interests ranged widely from the Puritan Revolution to the Scottish Enlightenment Yet he was also fascinated by the events of his own lifetime and wrote widely on issues of espionage and intelligence as well as maintaining a fascination with the workings and personalities of Nazi Germany In this volume a variety of contributors many of whom knew Trevor Roper personally engage with his scholarship and analyse his greatest achievements as an historian Covering the full range of Trevor Roper's interests this volume will be essential for anyone who wishes to better understand this great historian and his work

The Construction of Nationhood Adrian Hastings,1997-11-06 The Construction of Nationhood first published in 1997 is a thorough re analysis of both nationalism and nations In particular it challenges the current modernist orthodoxies of such writers as Eric Hobsbawm Benedict Anderson and Ernest Gellner and it offers a systematic critique of Hobsbawm's best selling Nations and Nationalism since 1780 In opposition to a historiography which limits nations and nationalism to the eighteenth century and after as an aspect of modernisation Professor Hastings argues for a medieval origin to both dependent upon biblical religion and the development of vernacular literatures While theorists of nationhood have paid mostly scant attention to England the development of the nation state is seen here as central to the subject but the analysis is carried forward to embrace many other examples including Ireland the South Slavs and modern Africa before concluding with an overview of the impact of religion contrasting Islam with Christianity while evaluating the ability of each to support supra national political communities
