Man Woman In Marriage:

Marriage Eloise C. Snyder, Herman R. Lantz, 1962 Man, Woman, and Marriage Alan L. Grey, 1970 What Is Marriage? Sherif Girgis, Robert George, Ryan Anderson, 2012-02-28

Until just yesterday no society monogamous or polygamous had defined marriage as anything other than a male female union With clear and cogent arguments What Is Marriage explains the rational basis of this historic consensus It defeats the arguments for recognizing same sex partnerships as marriages and shows how doing so would harm the common good Originally published in the Harvard Journal of Law and Public Policy this book s core argument quickly became the year s most widely read essay of more than 300 000 scholarly articles posted on the Social Sciences Research Network Now expanded to address a flurry of prominent responses What Is Marriage stands poised to meet its moment as few books of this generation have If the marriage debate in America is decided in the next few years it will be either with this book s help or despite its powerful arguments Rhodes Scholar Sherif Girgis Princeton University professor Robert P George and Ryan T Anderson editor of the online journal Public Discourse provide a devastating critique of the claim that equality requires redefining marriage They point out that any assessment of what marriage equality demands depends on first determining what marriage is what sort of relationships must be treated as essentially the same They defend the principle that marriage as a comprehensive union ordered to family life requires a man and a woman And they argue for the great social benefits of enshrining this principle in law Most compellingly they show that those who embrace same sex civil marriage leave themselves no firm ground none for not recognizing as marriages every relationship type describable in polite English including multiple partner polyamorous sexual unions Finally What Is Marriage decisively answer common objections that the historic view is rooted in bigotry like laws forbidding interracial marriage that it is callous to people s needs that it can t show the harm of recognizing same sex couplings or the point of recognizing infertile ones and that it treats a mere social construct as if it were natural or an unreasoned religious view as if it were rational

Every Woman's Marriage Shannon Ethridge, 2010-03-16

Set Your Husband s Heart Ablaze Are you a desperate housewife committed to marriage yet longing for a deeper more intimate connection with your husband Believe it or not you can have the marriage you long for if you re willing to take desperate measures If you re ready to stop the blame game and pursue the marriage of your dreams let authors Shannon and Greg Ethridge show you how to reignite your relationship with spiritual emotional and physical passion Drawing on real life stories from both men and women as well as lessons from their own less than satisfying early years of marriage they offer provocative insights about what it takes to nurture a dynamic marriage including what makes a husband s heart grow cold and how you can fan the embers into flame the difference between being right and being righteous how to fight fair how to guard your heart against unhealthy comparisons the dynamic power of getting spiritually and emotionally naked what your husband really wants most It s not what you think Every Woman s Marriage will give you practical tools and wise biblical Marriage, Work, and Family Life in Comparative Perspective Noriko O. Tsuya,Larry L. Bumpass,2003-12-31 When we compare Eastern and Western societies we find similar economic and social forces at work But the impact of these on family life reflects differences in cultural history and social context This volume examines family change in Korea Japan and the United States allowing us to contrast the collective emphasis of a Confucian social heritage with the individualism of the West An impressive group of demographers and family sociologists considers such questions as How do family patterns vary within countries and across societies How essential are marriage and parenthood How do levels of contact between middle aged adults and their parents who live elsewhere differ in East Asian countries and the U S How does female employment vary based on family factors and do these factors affect employment across societies Policy makers and demographic and family researchers both in the U S and Asia will find this book a vital resource for understanding the dynamics of family life in contrasting modern societies Contributors Larry L Bumpass Yong Chan Byun Minja Kim Choe Karen Oppenheim Mason Ronald R Rindfluss Noriko O Tsuya Men, Women, and Change Letha Scanzoni,John H.
