Service, Satisfaction and Climate: Perspectives on Management in English Language Teaching John Walker, 2010-10-06 Service Satisfaction and Climate Perspectives on Management in English Language Teaching presents the results of research carried out in New Zealand to demonstrate the ways ELT can be conceptualized in terms of service and climate Although ESL is a major worldwide service industry employing large numbers of professionals and serving millions of clients it is an under researched field and one that is under represented in the management business literature This omission is particularly noticeable given that ELT has its own particular themes problems and issues For instance ELT is an educational service yet exists within a commercial context Its clients are from different cultural and linguistic backgrounds In many ELT contexts the cultural and linguistic backgrounds of the service providers are different from those of the clients Thus the service provision has a strong cross cultural dimension Yet the ELT sector is largely missing from the educational and the management literature This book seeks to fill the gap through discussion of ELT as a service issues surrounding ELT teachers as service providers the work of ELT managers client expectations and perceptions of ELT service comparison of staff estimates and client ratings of service quality and considerations of service milieu and climate in ELT centers      Service Management and Marketing Principles Jay Kandampully, David J. Davis, Janelle N. Heineke, 2003 Managing Services is an alternative to the growing service management market in that it is more managerial and procedural placing less emphasis on quantitative tools and more on strategic concerns The benefit of this approach is that it views services from the perspective of the general manager rather than the operations specialist This is important especially considering most students taking this course aspire to and are preparing for managerial positions      Services Marketing Adrian Palmer, Catherine Cole, 1995 This text with cases provides a contemporary overview of key issues in the marketing of services It explores many issues that are familiar to students with a foundation in principles of marketing and re assesses these in the context of services Up to date case studies and examples developed throughout chapters help students to fully appreciate those issues that are specific to services marketing methods of defining the service offer conceptualization measurement and management of service quality managing the employee input to the service offer and developing relationships with customers and strategies to make services accessible      Managing the Guest Experience in Hospitality Robert Clayton Ford, Cherrill P.
