Managing The Business Of Empire Essays In Honour Of David Fieldhouse:

Managing the Business of Empire Peter Burroughs,A. J. Stockwell,2016-03-31 This collection of essays honours David Fieldhouse latterly Vere Harmsworth Professor of Imperial and Naval History at Cambridge and a foremost authority on the economics of the modern British Empire The contributors include an impressive array of former students colleagues and friends and their subjects range widely across the economic and administrative fields of British imperial history in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Reflecting many of Fieldhouse s own areas of scholarly interest the essays address economics and business theories of imperialism strategies of administration and decolonization

The UP Saga Susan M.

Martin,2004 United Plantations Berhad an innovative Scandinavian firm entered the plantations sector in Malaysia prior to World War One Their approach to Malaysia differed greatly from the British imperial style and they continue to grow Susan Martin examines their success

The British World Carl Bridge,Kent Fedorowich,2003

This collection of essays is based upon the assumption that the British Empire was held together not merely by ties of trade and defence but by a shared sense of British identity that linked British communities around the globe Focusing on the themes of migration identity and the media this book is an exploration of these and other interconnected themes that help define the British World of the late 19th and 20th centuries

In the Shadows of the American Century Alfred W. McCoy,2017-09-12 The award winning historian delivers a brilliant and deeply informed analysis of American power from the Spanish American War to the Trump Administration New York Journal of Books In this sweeping and incisive history of US foreign relations historian Alfred McCoy explores America s rise as a world power from the 1890s through the Cold War and its bid to extend its hegemony deep into the twenty first century Since American dominance reached its apex at the close of the Cold War the nation has met new challenges that it is increasingly unequipped to handle From the disastrous invasion of Iraq to the failure of the Trans Pacific Partnership fracturing military alliances and the blundering nationalism of Donald Trump McCoy traces US decline in the face of rising powers such as China He also offers a critique of America s attempt to maintain its position through cyberwar covert intervention client elites psychological torture and worldwide surveillance

Nation Building

Wang Gungwu,2005 The book addresses questions such as how should historians treat the earlier pasts of each country and the nationalism that guided the nation building tasks Where did political culture come in especially when dealing with modern challenges of class secularism and ethnicity What part do external or regional pressures play when the nations are still being built The authors have thought deeply about the issues of writing nation building histories and have tried to put them not only in the perspective of Southeast Asian developments of the past five decades but also the larger areas of historiography today

The Richest East India Merchant Anthony Webster,2007 John Palmer was the most influential and wealthiest British merchant in British India for the first three decades of the nineteenth century He ran an agency house a global commercial firm involved in banking the opium trade shipping plantation agriculture and trade with Britain Europe

China south east Asia and the USA When his firm went bankrupt in 1830 thousands of people European and Indian were ruined triggering the worst commercial crisis in British India up to that time This book the first major study of a British agency house in India presents an account of both of Palmer s business and personal life showing how his personal relations and circumstances shaped his commercial strategies with ultimately disastrous consequences for Anglo Indian relations as well as his clients

The Conservative Government and the End of Empire 1957-1964: Economics, international relations, and the commonwealth Ronald Hyam, William Roger Louis, 2000 This volume represents the first in depth treatment of end of empire during its climactic phase and from it will emerge a closer understanding of the dynamics involved in decolonisation

French Banking and Entrepreneurialism in China and Hong Kong Hubert Bonin, 2019-06-07 Many books have addressed the economic and financial history of Hong Kong and the imperialist conflicts in the key Chinese port cities but very few books have explored French initiatives and performance in this area beyond diplomacy geopolitics or cultural issues In this book Hubert Bonin confronts arguments about the great divergence the first globalisation and forms of economic patriotism He gauges the competitive edge of French companies and banks their struggle with British domination HBSC Chartered shipping trade houses hongs and their resistance against competitors from other countries Japan Germany Netherlands Belgium USA or Russia The book delves into studies of management abroad therefore mixing broad geo economic issues with precise business history and deep banking history The connections between French interests in China and Hong Kong and the colony of Indochina are established too A second part of the book is dedicated to the case study of Hong Kong as the British colony acted as a hub for Asian and European interests at the heart of connections with mainland China and some neighbouring territories Indochina etc This is essential reading for academics interested in banking and business history the history of entrepreneurship as well as those involved in the contemporary history of China and Hong Kong in the assessment of world wide geo economic competition between European powers in Asia Great Britain and France and in the first stages of economic modernity along European models in emerging modern China

The Conservative Government and the End of Empire 1957-1964 ,2000 Royal Historical Society Annual Bibliography of British and Irish History: Publications of 1998 Austin Gee, 1999-10-28 The Royal Historical Society s Annual Bibliography of British and Irish History provides a comprehensive and authoritative survey of books and articles on historical topics published in a single calendar year The volume covers all periods of British and Irish history from Roman Britain to the late twentieth century and also includes a section on imperial and commonwealth history It is the most complete and up to date bibliography of its type and an indispensable tool for historians Society and Change ,1998

Journal of Mediterranean Studies ,2000 Current Contents ,1998 Edward Seaga and the Challenges of Modern Jamaica Patrick E. Bryan, 2009 A biography of Edward Philip George Seaga retired prime minister of Jamaica 1980 1989 and former leader of the Jamaica Labour Party 1974 2005 It examines Seaga in light of the 20th century history of Jamaica which experienced the challenges of race colour the transition from the British colonial period to independence in 1962    Annual Bibliography of British and Irish History ,1998    American Book Publishing Record Cumulative 1998
