Manet Und Zola:

Zola, Cézanne, and Manet: a Study of L'oeuvre Robert Judson Niess, 1968 L'oeuvre The opening of L'oeuvre introduces Claude as he roams the Parisian streets his artist's sensibility at odds with the reality of the external world Just as he arrives home he unexpectedly finds Christine a frightened young girl seeking refuge after a mishap during her journey to the city Despite his initial skepticism and gruff demeanor he offers her shelter from the storm leading to moments of tension and vulnerability as both characters navigate their individual fears and desires This encounter sets the stage for the exploration of artistic ambition and the complex relationships between men and women against the backdrop of a vibrant yet harsh Parisian society

Manet and Modern Beauty Gloria Groom, 2019-06-25 This stunning examination of the last years of Édouard Manet's life and career is the first book to explore the transformation of his style and subject matter in the 1870s and early 1880s The name Manet often evokes the provocative heroically scaled pictures he painted in the 1860s for the Salon but in the late 1870s and early 1880s the artist produced quite a different body of work stylish portraits of actresses and demimondaines luscious still lifes delicate pastels intimate watercolors and impressionistic scenes of suburban gardens and Parisian cafés Often dismissed as too pretty and superficial by critics these later works reflect Manet's elegant social world propose a radical new alignment of modern art with fashionable femininity and record the artist's unapologetic embrace of beauty and visual pleasure in the face of death Featuring nearly three hundred illustrations and nine fascinating essays by established and emerging Manet specialists a technical analysis of the late Salon painting Jeanne Spring a selection of the artist's correspondence a chronology and more Manet and Modern Beauty brings a diverse range of approaches to bear on a little studied area of this major artist's oeuvre

Manet/Velázquez Gary Tinterow, Geneviève Lacambre, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Musée d'Orsay, 2003 Here approximately two hundred works by French and Spanish artists chart the development of this cultural influence and map a fascinating shift in the paradigm of painting from Idealism to

Realism from Italy to Spain from Renaissance to Baroque Above all these images demonstrate how direct contact with Spanish painting fired the imagination of nineteenth century French artists and brought about the triumph of Realism in the 1860s and with it a foundation for modern art

BOOK JACKET Cézanne and the End of Impressionism Richard Shiff, 2014-12-15 Drawing on a broad foundation in the history of nineteenth century French art Richard Shiff offers an innovative interpretation of Cézanne's painting He shows how Cézanne's style met the emerging criteria of a technique of originality and how it satisfied critics sympathetic to symbolism as well as to impressionism Expanding his study of the interaction of Cézanne and his critics Shiff considers the problem of modern art in general He locates the core of modernism in a dialectic of making technique and finding originality Ultimately Shiff provides not only clarifying accounts of impressionism and symbolism but of a modern classicism as well

"Interior Portraiture and Masculine Identity in France, 1789-1914" Heather Belnap Jensen, 2017-07-05 Focusing specifically on portraiture as a genre this volume challenges scholarly assumptions that regard interior spaces as uniquely feminine Contributors analyze portraits of men in domestic and studio spaces in France during the long nineteenth century the preponderance of such portraits alone supports the book's premise that the alignment of men with public life is oversimplified and more myth than reality The volume offers analysis of works by a mix of artists from familiar names such as David Delacroix Courbet Manet Rodin and Matisse to less well known image makers including Dominique Doncre Constance Mayer Anders Zorn and Lucien Etienne Melingue The essays cover a range of media from paintings and prints to photographs and sculpture that allows exploration of the relation between masculinity and interiority across the visual culture of the period The home and other interior spaces emerge from these studies as rich and complex locations for both masculine self expression and artistic creativity Interior Portraiture and Masculine Identity in France 1789-1914 provides a much needed rethinking of modern masculinity in this period

Cézanne, Murder, and Modern Life Andrzej Dombrowski, 2013 Cézanne's entire oeuvre Dombrowski's arguments are convincing and bold especially on the theme of murder as a vehicle for representation Modern Olympia has never before been so satisfactorily analyzed Susan Sidlauskus Rutgers University author of Cézanne's Other The Portraits of Hortense Exciting and intelligent Cézanne Murder and Modern Life will be important for modernists and essential for scholars of Cézanne's early Impressionism and painting in the 1860s Dombrowski shows us a Cézanne we did not know Nancy Locke author of Manet and the Family Romance The Beautiful and the Monstrous Amaleena Damlé, Aurélie L'Hostis, 2010 Modern French Identities focuses on the French and Francophone writing of the twentieth and twenty-first centuries whose formal experiments and revisions of genre have combined to create an entirely new set of literary forms The series publishes studies of individual authors and artists comparative studies and interdisciplinary projects The Colonial Comedy: Imperialism in the French Realist Novel Jennifer Yee, 2016-08-12

Nineteenth century French Realism focuses on metropolitan France with Paris as its undisputed heart Through Jennifer Yee's close reading of the great novelists of the French realist and naturalist canon Balzac Flaubert Zola Maupassant The Colonial Comedy reveals that the colonies play a role at a distance even in the most apparently metropolitan texts In what Edward Said called geographical notations of race and imperialism the presence of the colonies off stage is apparent as imported objects colonial merchandise and individuals whose colonial experience is transformative Indeed the realist novel registers the presence of the emerging global world system through networks of importation financial speculation and immigration as well as direct colonial violence and power structures The literature of the century responds to the last decades of French slavery and direct colonialism notably in Algeria but also economic imperialism and the extension of French influence elsewhere Far from imperialist triumphalism in the realist novel exotic objects are portrayed as fake or mass produced for the growing bourgeois market while economic imperialism is associated with fraud and manipulation The deliberate contrast of colonialism and exoticism within the metropolitan novel and ironic distancing of colonial narratives reveal the realist mode to be capable of questioning its own epistemological basis The Colonial Comedy argues for the existence in the nineteenth century of a Critical Orientalism characterized by critique of its own discursive foundations Using the tools of literary analysis within a materialist approach The Colonial Comedy opens up the domestic Paris Provinces axis to signifying chains pointing towards the colonial space Impressionist Painting, Its Genesis and Development Wynford Dewhurst, 1904

Manet, 1908 The Imaginative Interpretation of the Far East in Modern French Literature, 1800-1925

William Leonard Schwartz, 1927 "Masterpiece" Studies Kermit Swiler Champa, 1994 In Masterpiece Studies Kermit Champa offers new ways to interpret modernism that have previously been closed off by the application of the reigning art historical methodologies to the study of the modernist achievement He focuses on four separate phenomena Manet's last Salon painting Bar at the Folies Bergère L'Œuvre Zola's novel about the realist impressionist movement Van Gogh's problematic versions of a single painting La Berceuse and the immanent series phenomenon of Monet's work of the period Champa reveals the importance of music in particular Wagner's music as a paradigm for later nineteenth century French painting He also shows the crucial significance of the concept of the masterpiece as thematized by Zola in his novel for our understanding of certain aspects of the art of Manet Monet and Van Gogh Employing postformalist methodology the book explores the conversation between works of art produced in close succession and elaborates an aesthetic context for that conversation Champa also shows how paintings and fictional representations of paintings can announce their points in common and it is out of this exploration that he radically redefines what constitutes context Manet and Symbolism Alden Cavanaugh, 1990 Courbet's Landscapes Paul Galvez, 2022-01-01 A groundbreaking insight into Gustave Courbet and his bold experiments in landscape painting Between 1862 and 1866 Gustave Courbet embarked on a series of sensuous landscape paintings that would later inspire the likes of Monet Pissarro and Cézanne This series has long been neglected in favor of Courbet's paintings of rural French life Courbet's Landscapes The Origins of Modern Painting explores these astonishing paintings staking a claim for their importance to Courbet's work and later developments in French modernism Ranging from the grottoes of Courbet's native Franche-Comté to the beaches of Normandy Paul Galvez follows the artist on his travels as he uses a palette knife to transform the Romantic landscape of voyage into a direct visceral confrontation with the material world The Courbet he discovers is not the celebrated history painter of provincial life but a committed landscapist whose view of nature aligns him with contemporary developments in geology history linguistics and literature
