The American Journal of Nursing, 1925 Pacific Coast Journal of Nursing, 1921 And If I Perish Evelyn Monahan, Rosemary Neidel-Greenlee, 2007-12-18 In World War II 59 000 women voluntarily risked their lives for their country as U S Army nurses When the war began some of them had so little idea of what to expect that they packed party dresses but the reality of service quickly caught up with them whether they waded through the water in the historic landings on North African and Normandy beaches or worked around the clock in hospital tents on the Italian front as bombs fell all around them For more than half a century these women's experiences remained untold almost without reference in books historical societies or military archives After years of research and hundreds of hours of interviews Evelyn M Monahan and Rosemary Neidel Greenlee have created a dramatic narrative that at last brings to light the critical role that women played throughout the war From the North African and Italian Campaigns to the Liberation of France and the Conquest of Germany U S Army nurses rose to the demands of war on the frontlines with grit humor and great heroism A long overdue work of history And If I Perish is also a powerful tribute to these women and their inspiring legacy     The Trained Nurse and Hospital Review ,1904 A monthly magazine of practical nursing devoted to the improvement and development of the graduate nurse     Proceedings International Council of Nurses,1927     The China Christian Year Book ,1926     Physical Reconstruction and Vocational Education, Part One United States.
