

Was he testing to see how elastic love could be? Was he simply a man who had gladly given his youth to a man in midlife, and now nearing midlife himself, wanted back the fortune he squandered.

Man Who Couldnt See Himself A Love Story:

The Man who Couldn't See Himself, 1999 In the tradition of such bestselling illustrated classics as Jonathan Livingston Seagull and Off to Sea Torregrossa s The Man Who Couldn t See Himself is an enchanting story Whimsically illustrated The Man Who Couldn t See Himself tells the story of a man who has lost sight of who he is He is filled with only loneliness and little self esteem To fill this void he buys himself a dog but before long they are both lonely And what evolves is a sublime journey of a man to find himself again In spite of life s daily demands and stresses in his business he decides to make paper flowers a compelling metaphor for how he s now chosen to look at life The paper flowers find their way around and eventually make their way into the hearts of those whose lives they touch One paper flower leads a beautiful woman to him and because he has been able to transform himself he attracts true love The magic of this story occurs at the moment the man decides to surrender himself to what he believes is his fate and comes to terms with his loneliness However instead of allowing his acceptance to become a dismal one he demonstrates a shift in his consciousness and becomes open to the mystery of love It is only then that he is able to let love enter his life and his acceptance of himself is what creates this possibility not the expectation or the egoistic need for love
