Ruderman, Patricia J. Ohlott, 1994 Promotions are among the most significant rewards a manager can receive. They are also important events for an organization. Yet little is known about what goes into the actual promotion decision. This report documents a study of how the promotion decisions of senior level employees in three Fortune 500 companies were actually made. A clearer picture is gained through interviews with those involved in the process and through access to performance appraisals and succession planning documents. Labor Market Institutions in China Xinxin Ma, 2024-09-21 This book examines labor market policy and institutional reforms and their impact on outcomes in the Chinese labor market utilizing both institutional and empirical study perspectives.
