Managing Human Resources in Recreation, Parks, and Leisure Services David F. Culkin, Sondra L. Kirsch, 1986

Human Resource Management in Recreation, Sport, and Leisure Services Margaret Arnold, Regina Bresnan

Glover, Cheryl Suzanne Beeler, 2012 Managers of recreation sport and leisure services perform a variety of activities Perhaps the most essential of these activities is the management of human resources Every person associated with an organization directly or indirectly is a resource These people might be recreation directors event planners sport managers park supervisors therapeutic recreation specialists or outdoor leaders They might have full time part time seasonal or voluntary status It is a mistake to assume that these individuals will automatically fit together into a cohesive coordinated team Furthermore it is an error to assume that people will automatically perform the appropriate tasks and perform those tasks in the most desirable manner An effective team effort is essential to the operation of any organization and it is the responsibility of the manager to make this happen In summary this textbook prepares students whether they intend to work in commercial recreation therapeutic recreation outdoor recreation governmental recreation youth services sports management or event planning with a solid foundation for human resource management Theory and practice are combined to assist students in gaining a greater understanding of the many complexities they will encounter in the workplace Publisher's website
