Parliaments in Asia Zheng Yongnian, Lye Liang Fook, Wilhelm Hofmeister, 2013-10-23 Much writing on politics in Asia revolves around the themes of democracy and democratisation with a particular focus on political systems and political parties This book on the other hand examines the role that parliaments a key institution of democracy play in East Southeast and South Asia including Taiwan and Hong Kong Parliaments in these locations function in a variety of historical political and socio economic circumstances with different implications for institution building and political development This book examines questions like how accessible representative transparent accountable and effective are parliaments To what extent are parliaments able to hold other political actors to account or how far are they constrained by the political environment in which they operate Going further this book considers how new media such as the Internet and other social platforms through providing avenues for individuals to articulate their views separate from official channels are influencing the ways parliaments work To stay relevant parliamentarians need to reach out and engage these individuals in formulating deciding and fine tuning policies In the information age being a parliamentarian has become more challenging and how a parliamentarian copes with this change will shape the nature and pace of political development Evolution of a Revolution Li-ann Thio, Kevin Y.L. Tan, 2009-01-26 This book presents a timely assessment of the impact of history politics and economics in shaping the Singapore Constitution and is the first collaborative effort by a group of Singapore constitutional law scholars Going beyond the descriptive narrative the authors cast a critical eye over the developments of the last forty years by situating them in the larger tapestry of Singapore's historical political and economic development An Introduction to Singapore's Constitution Kevin Tan, 2005 Law is one of the most jargon filled and least understood of disciplines and among its sub branches constitutional law is considered one of the most difficult and arcane Yet the Constitution affects every one of us in ways we seldom contemplate In this volume the reader is quickly introduced to the basic concepts of constitutionalism such as the separation of powers the rule of law and the principle of judicial review In twelve succinct chapters this book covers the basic structure of government in Singapore as well as the fundamental liberties protected under the constitution Written with a minimum of fuss and jargon this book provides the high school student and interested layperson with a compact and accessible guide to Singapore's Constitution A comprehensive reading list glossary and list of cases cited is included for those interested in a more in depth exploration of this topic P 4 of cover Constitutional Law in Malaysia and Singapore Kevin Tan, 1997

Singapore Journal of International & Comparative Law ,2002 The Singapore Legal System Kevin Tan, 1999 Extensively revised edition of this book which was first published in 1989 Eight out of 14 chapters are new including chapters such as The Constitutional Framework of Powers Alternative Dispute Resolution and the Singapore Legal System and International Law Presidency Li-ann Thio, 2015 Essays in Singapore Legal History Kevin Tan, 2005 The essays in this volume are the result of an exhibition on legal history staged by the Singapore Academy of Law in 1995 After that exhibition a Legal History Sub Committee was established within the Academy to look into ways of promoting the general awareness of the roots of legal practice in Singapore It was decided that an illustrated collection of essays on selected legal history subjects might provide the right launchpad This book aims not only to bring the fascinating world of legal history to a much wider audience but also to act as a springboard for future study and research If anything it represents the beginning of a quest to making legal history a living subject Singapore Law Review ,1999 Combating Corruption Singapore-style

Jon S. T. Quah, 2007 Singapore, 1991 State-society Relations in Singapore Gillian Koh, Giok Ling Ooi, 2000 This book is a collection of essays first presented by leaders from the state market and civic sectors at a national dialogue on civil society in Singapore organized by the Institute of Policy Studies in May 1998 It is set in the context of current thinking on development and governance where there has been a paradigm shift from viewing state and civil society as a zero sum adversarial relationship to viewing it as having the potential for synergies It records an initial response to this new notion across the sectors represented In effect it also reflects the current condition of state society relations some years since the People's Action Party government indicated it welcomed a greater role for civil society Shared Responsibilities, Unshared Power Khai Leong Ho, 2003 The book offers a critical analysis of the political dynamics that shape Singapore's public policies It suggests that policy making in Singapore involves a complex process of interaction among political institutions and that the distribution of power among these institutions is hierarchical and precarious Thus the book argues the contestation of political interests occupies a central position in these stratified interactions and this has been largely responsible for the types of policies and their impact Encyclopedia of Singapore Justin J. Corfield, Robin Corfield, 2006 This Encyclopedia of Singapore focuses on the period since the island nation's independence but also provides essential background and history It includes entries on the leaders of Singapore's struggle for independence and economic progress as well as other cultural figures Additional entries describe important places institutions and events There is also a brief chronology and an introduction both to place events in their historical context and a bibliography for further reading Jacket
