Mans Rage For Chaos Biology Behavior And The Arts:

Man's Rage for Chaos Morse Peckham, 1967 Cultural criticism has been too obsessed with the rage for order to be able to grasp the import of Peckham's search for some human activity which serves to break up orientations to weaken and frustrate the tyrannous drive to order to prepare the individual to observe what the orientation tells him is irrelevant but what may every be relevant The techniques of poetry music painting and architecture are carefully and lucidly analyzed to demonstrate how precisely those techniques violate the profound demand of the mind for order This book is destined to force a sharp turn in critical cultural studies because it addresses the rage for chaos in traditional high culture not just in popular culture Publisher Architecture as Environmental Communication Asghar T. Minai, 2017-03-20 No detailed description available for Architecture as Environmental Communication

The Performing Arts John Blacking, Joann W. Kealiinohomoko, 2010-10-06 No detailed description available for The Performing Arts

Earthworks Suzaan Boettger, 2002 Her examination of Earthworks relationship to the ecology movement perceptively corrects a popular misconception about the artists goals while acknowledging the social and cultural complexities of the period

Literary Diseases Gian-Paolo Biasin, 2014-07-03 Disease real or imagined physical or mental is a common theme in Western literature and is often a symbol of modern alienation In Literary Diseases a comprehensive analysis of the metaphorical and symbolic force of disease in modern Italian literature Gian Paolo Biasin expands the geography of the discussion of this important theme Using as a backdrop the perspective of European experiences of the previous hundred years Biasin analyzes the theme of disease as a reflection of certain sociological and historical phenomena in modern European novels as a metaphor for the world visions of selected Italian novelists and especially as a vehicle for understanding the nature and function of fiction itself The core of Biasin's study is found in his discussion of the works of four major Italian writers In his criticism of the novels of Giovanni Verga who stood at the center of many complex developments in the nineteenth century he examines the antecedents of modern Italian prose He then scrutinizes the works of Italo Svevo and Luigi Pirandello who together inaugurated the modern novel in Italy Of particular interest is his exploration of their critical use of psychoanalysis and madness climaxed by apocalyptic visions He then discusses the prose of Carlo Emilio Gadda which epitomizes the problems of the avant garde in its experimentalism and expressionism Biasin utilizes a broad spectrum of critical approaches from sociology psychoanalysis and different trends in modern French American and Italian literary criticism in shaping his own methodology which is a thematic and structural symbolism He concludes that disease in literature should be considered as a metaphor for writing critique and as a cognitive instrument that calls into question the anthropocentric values of Western culture The book with its textual comparisons and unusual supporting examples constitutes a significant methodological contribution as well as a major survey of modern Italian prose and will allow the reader to see traditional landmarks in European fiction in a new light

Ragain,2021-01-12 Domesticating the Invisible examines how postwar notions of form developed in response to newly perceived environmental threats in turn inspiring artists to model plastic composition on natural systems often invisible to the human eye Melissa S Ragain focuses on the history of art education in Cambridge Massachusetts to understand how an environmental approach to form inspired new art programs at Harvard and MIT As they embraced scientific theories of composition these institutions also cultivated young artists as environmental agents who could influence urban design and contribute to an ecologically sensitive public sphere Ragain combines institutional and intellectual histories to map how the emergency of environmental crisis altered foundational modernist assumptions about form transforming questions about aesthetic judgment into questions about an ethical relationship to the environment      The Roots of Literature Walter A.

Koch,1993      Bulletin of Art Therapy ,1968      Art Journal ,1960      Sir Thomas Malory and the Cultural Crisis of the Late Middle Ages Robert Merrill,1987 Sir Thomas Malory and the Cultural Crisis of the Late Middle Ages is an original inquiry into the psychology of the famous knights of Arthurian Romance Lancelot Tristram Galahad and the impact of the Round Table on their lives Robert Merrill argues that the development of the Round Table mirrors the effort of medieval Catholicism to assert its doctrines as reality and the path to personal and social fulfillment and that Malory regarded such a political program as inherently tragic Using current research in cognitive psychology and sociology Merrill traces the way in which medieval institutions were innovated and maintained Malory's romance depicts the process of conflict reduction identity formation and optimization but at the same time it shows how these social goals create crises in individual lives Personal well being comes not to depend upon stable social structures as medieval political theory held but rather on the potential for individuals to vandalize and modify institutions Malory and Cultural Crisis is an important exploration of the personal and social tensions in the late Middle Ages that led to the Protestant Reformation Merrill is the first to articulate their presence in Arthurian Romance literature      Literature and Psychology Leonard Falk Manheim,1966
