Burdett,1900      A War Nurse's Diary; Sketches From A Belgian Field Hospital [Illustrated Edition] Anon.,2014-06-13 Illustrated with 33 photos of the author s comrades adventures and hospitals When war broke out in 1914 it was imagined in Britain that the war with Germany would be short and the need for nursing staff over in France would be low as there should be very few casualties The author a trained nurse from the Northern Midlands in England decided that she would volunteer her services immediately but was rebuffed by the Red Cross and St John s Ambulance on the basis that they had almost one nurse for every soldier in the field Not to be deterred she responded to an advert which read Ten nurses wanted at once for Antwerp must be voluntary And off to Belgium she went in August 1914 It was to be in Belgium that so many of these rosy presumptions that were held by many were shattered early in the autumn of 1914 as the German steamroller thumped into the Allied forces In its wake the huge numbers of wounded flooded into the hospitals in Belgium where our author was inundated with work As the Germans moved forward she and her fellow hospital staff were moved backward from Antwerp where she was briefly caught up in the siege escaping to Ghent Bruges Ostend and thence to France She tended to the wounded amidst the carnage of war almost unceasingly until a year later when she left France for England in October 1915      A War Nurse's Diary Anonymous,2018-10-11 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is
