A HISTORY OF AMERICAN
TECHNOLOGY, 1776-1860

DAVID FREEMAN HAWKE

"This book is a history of the American machine, from the first crude tools and simple devices to the complex machinery of the Industrial Revolution. It is a history of the American mind, of the American spirit, of the American dream. It is a history of the American people, of the American way of life, of the American future. It is a history of the American nation, of the American people, of the American dream. It is a history of the American people, of the American way of life, of the American future. It is a history of the American nation, of the American people, of the American dream." — Washington Post
