Intercultural Problems Within Joint Ventures In China Michael Amtmann, 2004-12-20 Diploma Thesis from the year 2004 in the subject Business economics Business Management Corporate Governance grade 1.0 VG University of Applied Sciences Nuremberg language English abstract Since the reforms of 1979 the People's Republic of China's PRC economy has experienced significant growth There is no doubt that this economic expansion has been a direct result of the opening up of Chinese companies to foreign investors The number of sino foreign joint ventures which are by the way a privileged form of investment granted by the Chinese government has been increasing rapidly According to Chinese statistics at the end of 1998 Chinese foreign joint ventures represented approximately two thirds of about 300 000 foreign investment projects that were approved by Chinese authorities In fact among the developing countries China is currently the one which attracts the most western investments Joining the World Trade Organization WTO in 2001 China pushed this development even further and while other countries were fighting a recession at the same time it was able to sustain a growth of 7.8% regarding the Gross Domestic Product GDP 14.1% with respect to exports and 10.4% regarding imports 1 Consequently there is steady interest of foreign companies to form joint ventures in the People's Republic of China But whereas in the 1980ies mostly the huge corporations where entering this market nowadays more and more mid-sized companies for instance from Germany are forming joint ventures too From the region Mittelfranken for example 320 businesses have developed ties with the People's Republic a plus of 60% from 1996 2 Many foreign firms are considering entering joint ventures in China because this seems to offer the most attractive method for gaining access to the huge potential of the labour pool and market of China Nonetheless there are many warnings about the problems that have to be faced in order to establish a joint venture in China Chief among these is the problem of differing management styles between Foreign and Chinese partners Very little accurate information is available about Sino Foreign joint ventures 3 An example is the wide disparity in the reports of the numbers of Sino German joint ventures 1 http://www.ihk-nuernberg.de/ihk_primnav/wir_ueber_uns/kammergespraeche/canrong.jsp 2 http://www.ihk-nuernberg.de/ihk_primnav/wir_ueber_uns/kammergespraeche/canrong.jsp 3 Markterfolg in China Physica Verlag Michael Nippa P. 6 Hong Kong Journal of Business Management, 1992 China 2000 Nelson Lane Kelley, Yadong Luo, 1999 China 2000 presents a comprehensive resource for those seeking a better grasp of business challenges and opportunities in China in the next century Fourth Annual Graduate Student Conference on Hawai'i, Asia and the Pacific, 1992 Current Bibliographical Information Dag Hammarskjöld Library, 1991 Asian Management Systems Min Chen, 1995-03 Bibliographic Guide to Business and Economics New York Public Library.
