Social Reading Cultures on BookTube, Bookstagram, and BookTok Bronwyn Reddan, Leonie Rutherford, Amy Schoonens, Michael Dezuanni, 2024-04-30 This book examines the reading cultures developed by communities of readers and book lovers on BookTube Bookstagram and BookTok as an increasingly important influence on contemporary book and literary culture. It explores how the affordances of social media platforms invite readers to participate in social reading communities and engage in creative and curatorial practices that express their identity as readers and book lovers. The interdisciplinary team of authors argue that by creating new opportunities for readers to engage in social reading practices bookish social media has elevated the agency and visibility of readers and book consumers within literary culture. It has also reshaped the cultural and economic dynamics of book recommendations by creating a space in which different actors are able to form an identity as mediators of reading culture. Concise and accessible this introduction to an increasingly central set of literary practices is essential reading for students and scholars of literature, sociology, media and cultural studies as well as teachers and professionals in the book and library industries

Young Adult Library Services Anthony Bernier, Shari Lee, 2024-04-26 Finally a single volume that comprehensively introduces and addresses the most pressing issues and opportunities in young adult teen library services. Perpetually in the shadow of service to children and historically riven by fractious relationships between public and school libraries young adult services continue to suffer inadequacies and inequities of all kinds. Consequently this area of specialization remains without the capacity to build the institutional political, cultural or professional influence needed to grow and develop beyond ritual and repetition. Young Adult Services Challenges and Opportunities COYAS begins to address these inequities by preparing professionals. In COYAS LIS youth services instructors especially those in the United States and Canada will find a single broad and diverse engagement with scholars and acknowledged experts on the most pressing issues confronting YA services today. Students at both graduate and undergraduate levels will benefit from the field tested topics delivered through accessible treatments. Practicing YA and youth librarians will appreciate the support and evidence based analysis they likely found lacking in their MLIS programs. Earnest youth advocates will value the pursuit of issues beyond cliché and perpetual crash course entry level conversations. In addition instructors and students will both value the brevity of concisely focused chapters sectional introductions as well as the study guide questions that conclude each chapter. Content areas include history and critical engagement with foundational concepts in YA services current practices regarding challenges and opportunities as well as forward leaning issues for future development of the field. COYAS will ultimately empower librarians in delivering professional grade information services to improve the quality of young people's experience in this important cultural institution.

Atravesados Trevor Boffone, Cristina Herrera, 2025-02-17 Contributions by Frederick Luis Aldama, Trevor Boffone T Jackie Cuevas, Cristina Herrera, Alexander Lalama, Angel Daniel Matos, Regina Marie Mills, Joseph Isaac, Miranda Jesus, Monta

o Domino Renee Perez Regan Postma Monta o Cristina Rhodes and Sonia Alejandra Rodriguez Atravesados Essays on Queer Latinx Young Adult Literature shows how Latinx queer YA writers discard the same old story and offer critical representations of queerness that broaden YA writing and insist on the presence of queer teens of color Atravesados draws on foundational Chicana queer theorist Gloria Anzaldúa's notion of atravesados to speak to the spectrum of queer youth Latinidades as they materialize in YA literature. Los atravesados according to Anzaldúa are the squint eyed the perverse the queer the troublesome the mongrel the mulato the half breed the half dead in short those who cross over pass over or through the confines of the normal. Los atravesados reside in the borderlands space of ni de aquí ni de allí neither here nor there present yet liminal their queerness the very source of both frustration and empowerment a paradox of joy and tragedy. Although written in 1987 Anzaldúa's theory speaks to the realities of queer Latinx teens that fill the pages of YA literature well into the twenty first century. Characters such as Juliet from Gabby Rivera's Juliet Takes a Breath Aaron from Adam Silvera's More Happy Than Not or the titular Chulito from Charles Rice Gonzales's novel encompass the highs lows and everything in betweenness of queer Latinx teen lived experiences. This collection tells their stories. Contributors speak to the spectrum of queer youth Latinidades as they materialize in YA literature paying close attention to representation and the ways youth are portrayed whether accurate or stereotypical. Close attention is paid to books that succeed in broadening the field of YA highlighting authors that draw from their own lived experiences and situate strong fully developed characters. Taken together these essays move beyond the page explaining to readers why representation and authenticity matter in YA literature as well as the far reaching effects they can have for real world queer Latinx teens.

Child as Citizen Giuliana Fenech, 2025-08-15 Contributions by Daniela Brockdorff, Nina Christensen, Jill Coste, Katrin Dautel, Justyna Deszcz, Tryhubczak, Giuliana Fenech, Naomi Hamer, Irena Barbara Kalla, Anne Klomberg, Sonali Kulkarni, Elizabeth Leach, Leung, Ann Marie Murnaghan, Emily Murphy, Emilie Owens, Nicola Parker, Patrycja Poniatowska, Meg Rosoff, and Farriba Schulz. Child as Citizen: Agency and Activism in Children's Literature and Culture addresses children's and young adult agency and activism across literature and culture demonstrating how these forces influence child citizenship. Contributors to this volume highlight the agentic voices and activist practices that are growing across all spheres of young people's lives as well as the challenges to active citizenship that children growing up in unjust sociopolitical contexts face. The volume is interdisciplinary and draws on the sociology of childhood, children's literature studies, youth culture studies, media technology and cultural studies, and Anthropocene ecofeminist and disability studies. Agency occurs in and around literature and storytelling and this collection establishes how it is always influenced by identity as well as geopolitics, how it is both subjective and collective, how it is cultural and embodied and how like citizenship it is not a static status but rather an ongoing negotiation. In this collection contributors invite readers to consider agency as a system of relations between children themselves, between children and adults, children and institutions, and children and nation states as well as between children and the nonhuman. This book reviews the interconnectedness between these relationships and attempts to untangle some of the complications that emerge
