Violence and Mental Health Jutta Lindert, Itzhak Levav, 2015-02-25 Violence is one of the most important challenges not only for public health systems but also for public mental health Violence can have immediate as well as long term and even transgenerational effects on the mental health of its victims This book provides a comprehensive and wide ranging assessment of the mental health legacy left by violence It addresses the issues as they affect states communities and families in other words at macro meso and microlevels beginning by describing the impact of violence on neurobiology and mental health as well as the spectrum of syndromes and disorders associated with different forms of violence The work moves on to tackle violence at the international and intranational level before zeroing in on the nature of violence in communities such as villages or city districts It also examines the results of violence in the family Each type of violence has distinct effects on mental health and in each chapter specific groups are explored in depth to demonstrate the heterogeneity of violence as well as the diversity of its outcomes in the realm of public mental health Finally the book addresses the notion of undoing violence by detailing case studies of effective interventions and prevention occurring in countries communities and families These cases give us pause to reflect on the nature of resilience and dignity in the context of violence and mental health All the chapters have been written by leading authors in the field and provide a state of the art perspective The authors from different fields of expertise facilitate interdisciplinary and international insights into the impact of violence on mental health

Gender, Violent Conflict, and Development Dubravka Žarkov,2008 Papers presented at the Expert Seminar Gender Violent Conflict and Development Issues for Theory Policy and Practice held at Hague on October 2003

Serving Vulnerable and Marginalized Populations in Social and Educational Contexts Anies Al-Hroub,Sally Reis,Joseph Madaus,Itab Shuayb,2024-04-26

There is evidence that the global COVID 19 crisis is exacerbating existing inequalities and marginalization of vulnerable groups including exceptional learners stateless street migrant and refugee children and youths and the limited use of frameworks of emergency planning with and for marginalized and at risk individuals These challenges are multi sectoral and intersecting and they require multi and interdisciplinary interventions to inform inclusive responses These issues include being at a greater risk of excluding vulnerable learners from gaining access to equitable education online remote and blended education Intersecting forms of discrimination such as gender socioeconomic and legal status further exacerbate the problem This has alerted us to examine the living conditions of marginalized and vulnerable populations around the globe and to reveal their experiences problems and needs from an educational perspective thus bringing insights into their vulnerabilities during the pandemic

The Continuing Role of Theravāda Buddhism in Khmer Healing and Social Development Samuel O'Keefe,2019-10-23 Research Paper undergraduate from the year 2018 in the subject Theology Buddhism grade 90 00 course Contemporary Cambodian Studies language English abstract This study examines 1 the role that Therav da Buddhism plays today in Cambodian society and the precise ideals and processes within the philosophy conducive to psychological healing and larger social development and 2 the cultural competencies upheld by NGOs providing relief from trauma caused by the aforementioned issues paying specific attention to ways in which these NGOs do and do not harness the healing powers and moral precepts of Therav da Buddhism Research findings suggest the fruitfulness of Buddhist oriented approaches to psychological healing and social development in a country exhibiting high rates of undiagnosed mental illness and low mental health literacy in the rural provinces which demonstrate the highest mental health burden A gradual yet targeted integration of Buddhist spiritual personnel and institutions with psychological and psychosocial support NGOs would be efficacious in enhancing the cultural competency of NGOs approaches while also extending the geographic reach of counseling efforts and resources to the most marginalized in the country In Cambodia trauma lingering from the Khmer Rouge era genocide combined with that produced by compounded social issues including child sexual abuse human trafficking and gender based violence GBV contribute to one of highest rates in the world of what a Western diagnostic model would define as PTSD Such imbricated realities in Cambodia remain stigmatized taboo and misunderstood within Khmer society oftentimes hindering the healing process for survivors at the individual and community levels NGOs analyzed in this study seek to provide psychological and psychosocial support to those experiencing trauma from these events and concurrently promote education on these issues Considering the predominantly Western origins of national NGO donors this study is one of the first to examine cultural competence in the context of national NGOs and trauma stemming from contemporary violence in Cambodia My research examines the impact and sustainability of these organizations approaches toward supporting the holistic healing needs of those experiencing trauma or distress with an eye toward how Therav da Buddhist principles are incorporated into these support and development methods Adoption of a Buddhist spiritual lens was informed and encouraged by both primary and secondary research that revealed the healing and social development tools immanent within Buddhist teachings South Africa's Truth and Reconciliation Commission Muhammed Haron,2009 The South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission An Annotated Bibliography is a much needed reference work for those who are studying and pursuing the outcomes of Truth Commissions around the world However it is also a valuable tool for all researchers from diverse disciplines For example those specialising in the fields of sociology political science and literature will find material that appeals and is relevant to their areas of research There is little doubt that students and researchers pursuing courses such as Conflict Resolution Good Governance and International Relations would find this compilation more than beneficial since it covers not only an assortment of themes but it also includes ingenious cartoons by the famous Zapiro and memorable photographs by George Hallet In addition the compiler also inserted a select number of poems that dealt with the issues and themes related to the TRC process Dancing on the Mass Grave Rachmi Diyah Larasati,2006 The Global Crisis of Violence Dorothy Van Soest,1997 This book sets forth the concepts of violence in systemic terms in the context of culture and institution You will learn how preventive investments in social infrastructures can provide fiscally and ethically sound solutions You will discover strategies to address the causes and impacts of violence that are effective world wide An important text for Human Behaviour and Social Environment courses and for policy courses Index of Conference Proceedings ,1990 State of the World ,2007 A People's Response to Our Global Neighborhood Michael Hays,1995 Aboriginal Domestic Violence in Canada Judie Bopp,Michael Bopp,Phil Lane,Four Worlds Centre for Development Learning,2003 This study builds on many valuable contributions already made to the understanding of family violence and abuse in Aboriginal communities over the past fifteen years especially in terms of mapping the complex web of factors that create and sustain this critical issue at the level of individuals extended families community systems and the socio environmental context within which they exist Closely aligned to this intent is the study s articulation of a comprehensive framework for intervention that addresses root causes and identifies a set of strategies for significantly reducing the horrendous levels of domestic violence and abuse now on going in many communities Executive summary

Abstracts of the Annual Meeting -- American Anthropological Association American Anthropological Association,2005 Political Refugees Monica K. Zimmermann,2008 A refugee is a person who owing to a well founded fear of being persecuted for reasons of race religion nationality membership of a particular social group or political opinion is outside the country of their nationality and is unable to or owing to such fear is unwilling to avail him herself of the protection of that country according to the 1951 United Nations Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees The concept of a refugee was expanded by the Conventions 1967 Protocol and by regional conventions in Africa and Latin America to include persons who had fled war or other violence in their home country A person who is seeking to be recognised as a refugee is an asylum seeker In the United States a recognised asylum seeker is known as an asylee Refugee was defined as a legal group in response to the large numbers of people fleeing Eastern Europe following World War II The lead international agency co ordinating refugee protection is the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees UNHCR which counted 28 4 million refugees world wide at the beginning of 2006 This was the lowest number since 1980 The major exception is the 4 3 million Palestinian refugees under the authority of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East UNRWA who are the only group to be granted refugee status to the descendants of refugees according to the above definition The U S Committee for Refugees and Immigrants gives the world total as 12 019 700 refugees and estimates there are over 34 000 000 displaced by war including internally displaced persons who remain within the same national borders The majority of refugees who leave their country seek asylum in countries neighbouring their country of nationality The durable solutions to refugee populations as defined by UNHCR and governments are voluntary repatriation to the country of origin local integration into the country of asylum and resettlement to a third country
