

A promotional image for the TV show "Ordinary Miracles". It features two women in a courtroom setting. One woman, with long brown hair, stands in the background wearing a dark green judicial robe over a white collared shirt, with her hands clasped. The other woman, with long brown hair and bangs, is seated at a wooden bench in the foreground, wearing a grey top and fishnet sleeves, leaning forward with her hand on her head. Two microphones are positioned on the bench. In the background, a large, circular, ornate seal is mounted on a wood-paneled wall.

Ordinary Miracles:

Ordinary Miracles Molly Hawkins, 2013 When Norman and Molly Hawkins visited a little full gospel church in the tiny village of South Chard in Somerset England in 1968 little did they know then what an incredible life's journey awaited them as a result This book is an account of some of the true and amazing miracles they and others experienced after encountering Almighty God through His Son Jesus Christ To some they sound unbelievable but to our extraordinary God they are simply ordinary miracles

Ordinary Miracles Deborah Labovitz, 2003 Find out how people have learned to cope with their troubles and have become stronger by the very act of overcoming obstacles and surviving catastrophes These are their stories written by the people who lived them their families or those who helped them save the day Ordinary Miracles

Diana Aspin, 2003 It all starts with ten year old Arthur Clive Pinner a Home Boy shipped to Canada in 1909 who runs away from the brutal couple with whom he has been placed Art ends up in a wintry Muskoka forest desperate for any kind of refuge He meets a girl from the future who comforts and reassures him for a few precious moments and then sends him on his way so that he can find the family that takes him in a raises him as their own Flash forward ninety years to the town of Sky Falls where Art has grown up married and grown old Now confined to his wheelchair Art is only vaguely aware of the intrigues and stresses of the twenty first century and he occasionally mutters about finding the landing card he had inadvertently given to his girl from the future decades before The dramas swirling around him make up the bulk of this collection of thirteen stories about coming of age in a small northern town Ordinary Miracles Angela Dudley, 2011-10-31

We walk to God how wondrous our task Simple truth no questions left to ask We walk to God an awesome holy thing Our open hearts are all were asked to bring Ordinary Miracles is an oxymoron in a world where peace seems unreliable and prayers seem unanswered But what if the real world exists where miracles are the norm Miracles of joy and forgiveness always occur within our minds and their external form may or may not be apparent to us However since miracles always come from love they always offer an inner experience of bliss The love that causes miracles is only ordinary because it is always present within us Miracles are ordinary because they are our true nature not a bonus that was earned by someone extra ordinary No matter how successfully we've hidden our inner spark of love it remains with us always the truth of who we are always awaiting our consent to offer miracles The poetry of Ordinary Miracles is the author's response to the inner Voice for God what she calls the Holy Spirit Inspired by A COURSE in MIRACLES these poems celebrate the truth that we always have a choice to invest ourselves in thoughts of kindness rather than criticism happiness rather than sorrow But whatever we choose we cannot change the magnificent reality of what we are The poems are written as an acknowledgment that the Voice for God offers a very personal relationship with each of us The Voice for God is always patient always answers always loves us and to our little effort adds the strength of God In the COURSE Jesus reminds us Love waits on welcome not on time Text chapter 13 The most profound journey we each make is to that place within where God patiently awaits our certain return

Weaving the Divine Thread Brendan McGuire, 2019-12-09 In the busyness of our modern lifestyle it is difficult to see and experience God in our lives Unless we stop and listen it is hard to hear what God wishes to reveal to our hearts In publishing this book Fr Brendan offers us not only a challenge but an invitation An invitation to take a break to find some quiet time to be with the Lord It is there in the quiet of God's presence that we will find rest for our souls The book is comprised of a series of homilies Each one of the homilies was delivered in Fr Brendan's parish Each one emphasizes the presence of God in the daily events of our lives He challenges us to step back from the busyness of the modern world and all its distractions and focus on the Word of God Many of the homilies tell a story of a day to day life Fr Brendan then connects that story of ordinary life to the story of God acting in our own lives When we step back and reflect on the presence of God in our lives we see that God is not only present but that he has woven a fabric a fabric rich in grace telling the divine the story that is deep within each of us
