and Cigars : A Memoir Lisa Stalvey,2015-07-02 My memoir spans the first twelve years of my life as a professional chef I was living in hell from September 1980 until 1993 facing many unforeseen challenges in every aspect of my life I planned on making this a cookbook twenty two years ago Then one day in 2011 it came to me that it needed to be a memoir so I just sat down and wrote While writing this book I found myself craving to feel hungry again and with that came misery The old habits of anorexia truly never leave They linger around waiting for the chance to pounce again I think that both my parents being artists of sorts gave me an interesting view of life We were totally allowed our freedom and they gave us their trust As I was being rushed to the hospital staring at three of my severed fingers floating in ice water I couldn t believe what just happened At age twenty four I was pretty thin and working as a line cook among Hollywood s elite I was about to get married but it all came to a screeching halt in 1980 when I severed three of my fingers in an industrial Cuisinart in the kitchen where I worked I describe my journey through the most difficult time of my life suffering from anorexia and living with a disability How could my life continue after losing three of my precious fingers and on my right hand no less Miraculously I pulled myself out of anorexia by finally seeing my body as it really was I began to slowly heal though it took almost thirty one more years I read self help books recited affirmations and began to seriously search for the missing piece of my heart This is my account of being a woman in a male dominated industry complete with a complicated relationship with food and a man resulting in a long self destructive streak I have been cooking for thirty eight years professionally including an apprenticeship in 1980 with Wolfgang Puck ultimately becoming his head chef at Spago Sunset I can t wait to read anything that she writes Marc Vetri Philadelphia restaurateur named one of the Top Ten Chefs in America Paul Newman Shawn Levy,2010-05-04 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER This absorbing affectionate portrait manages to bring Newman back to us Paul Newman leaves readers with a surprisingly cheering message If the rest of us can t aspire to having Newman s life we can at least take inspiration from the way he lived his The Washington Post A graceful tribute to a one of a kind man The Seattle Times Newman s life was never dull and Levy re creates it in vivid detail Parade Paul Newman the Oscar winning actor with the legendary blue eyes achieved superstar status by playing charismatic renegades broken heroes and winsome antiheroes in such revered films as The Hustler Cool Hand Luke Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid The Verdict The Color of Money and Nobody's Fool But Newman was also an oddity in Hollywood the rare box office titan who cared about the craft of acting the sexy leading man known for the staying power of his marriage and the humble celebrity who made philanthropy his calling card long before it was cool Unlike his father a successful entrepreneur Newman bypassed the family sporting goods business to pursue an acting career After struggling as a theater and television actor Newman landed the lead role of boxer Rocky Graziano in Somebody Up There Likes Me when in a tragic twist of fate James Dean was killed in a car accident Part of the original Actors Studio generation Newman demanded a high level of rigor and clarity from every project The artistic battles that nearly derailed his early movie career would pay off handsomely at the box office and earn him critical acclaim He applied that tenacity to every endeavor both on and off the set The outspoken Newman used his celebrity to call attention to political causes dear to his heart including civil rights and nuclear proliferation Taking up auto racing in midlife Newman became the oldest driver to ever win a major professional auto race A food enthusiast who would dress his own salads in restaurants he launched the Newman's Own brand dedicated to fresh ingredients a nonprofit juggernaut that has generated more than 250 million for charity In Paul Newman: A Life Shawn Levy gives readers the ultimate behind the scenes examination of the actor's life from his merry pranks on the set to his lasting romance with Joanne Woodward to the devastating impact of his son's death from a drug overdose This expansive biography is a portrait of an extraordinarily gifted man who gave back as much as he got out of life and just happened to be one of the most celebrated movie stars of the twentieth century
