Helmut Newton. PostcardBook. Helmut Newton, 2000-10      Newton Kate Gordon, Wayne T. McCabe, 1998-11 Newton presents a portrait of the county seat of Sussex County New Jersey during the late 19th and early 20th centuries With over 185 photographs postcards and other graphic images we see Newton blossom from a small country village into a bustling commercial and industrial town Among the never before published images in this book are the architect's original rendering for the Civil War monument in the county park the interior of the working man's bar at the Cochran House hotel and Damian Broda at the wheel of an early Ford in his garage the county's first automotive repair facility View the interior of the Merriam shoe factory as well as many of the town's commercial and residential streets The vast majority of the images are drawn from author Wayne T McCabe's monumental collection of postcards and photographs of Sussex County collected over a period of nearly 20 years Most of the photographs were made between 1860 and 1920 and reflect a time of growth and change in Newton's history Additional images have been provided by Jan Gminder of the Nostalgia Shop in Newton the Historical Society of Stillwater Township and the archives of the New Jersey Herald Newton presents a portrait of the county seat of Sussex County New Jersey during the late 19th and early 20th centuries With over 185 photographs postcards and other graphic images we see Newton blossom from a small country village into a bustling commercial and industrial town Among the never before published images in this book are the architect's original rendering for the Civil War monument in the county park the interior of the working man's bar at the Cochran House hotel and Damian Broda at the wheel of an early Ford in his garage the county's first automotive repair facility View the interior of the Merriam shoe factory as well as many of the town's commercial and residential streets The vast majority of the images are drawn from author Wayne T McCabe's monumental collection of postcards and photographs of Sussex County collected over a period of nearly 20 years Most of the photographs were made between 1860 and 1920 and reflect a time of growth and change in Newton's history Additional images have been provided by Jan Gminder of the Nostalgia Shop in Newton the Historical Society of Stillwater Township and the archives of the New Jersey Herald      Newton's Sleep R. Tallis, 1995-09-27 Vast in its intellectual scope it should induce not so much sleep as controversy whether literary or scientific philosophical or political It skims the oceans of academe in a manner accessible to the educated public informed and cogently argued stylistically dense Sandra Goldbeck Wood British Medical Journal Tallis can and frequently does write extremely well He also writes with considerable passion Raymond Tallis is perhaps best seen as an exceptionally interesting and broad minded heir to Huxley preaching the cause of the Church Scientific Richard Webster Times Literary Supplement Reviews of Not Saussure and The Explicit Animal Not Saussure I greatly enjoyed it Bernard Bergonzi The Explicit Animal his books are genuine contributions to professional debate Stephen R L Clarke Times Literary Supplement Newton's Sleep examines the complementary roles of science and art in human life Science has been criticised for being at best useful but spiritually derelict and art for attempting to answer the spiritual needs of humankind while ignoring the material needs of millions who live in want Newton's Sleep deals with the charges that science is spiritually empty and that art fails in its civilising mission by relating these aspects of human culture to the physical and metaphysical hungers of an explicit animal who lives in both the Kingdom of Means and the Kingdom of Ends Tallis can and frequently does write extremely well He also writes with considerable passion Tallis is perhaps best seen as an exceptionally interesting and broad minded heir to Huxley preaching the cause of the Church Scientific Richard Webster

A Postcard History of the Passenger Liner Christopher Deakes, 2023-10-01 From around 1880 for almost a hundred years shipowners commissioned a wealth of paintings that depicted their magnificent liners as well as the routes they travelled their exotic destinations and life onboard These paintings rich in imagination and atmosphere appeared on postcards and posters of the day and were used to advertise the companies and their ships and so was born a whole genre that produced tens of thousands of paintings which formed a wonderful record of the great era of the passenger liner In 1900 there were over thirty shipping companies operating passenger liners across the North Atlantic Other oceans were similarly served But now with just a few exceptions the companies and their liners have disappeared along with the art they once inspired Little remains to recall this aspect of our maritime past except the postcards and they tell an evocative story of the vanished world of elegant ships and leisurely travel of social and political times much changed by the history of the past century Here brought vividly to life in more than 500 colourful postcards are the ships on which so many of our predecessors sailed as emigrants soldiers administrators or simply as tourists in days long past These cards which are now highly collectable show how steamships developed over the years but they are also a fine tribute to the artists who painted them This volume also includes a glossary of some 170 illustrators which forms an important reference section and advice on collecting

Wagstaff: Before and After Mapplethorpe Philip Gfelter, 2014-10-27 Winner of the Arts Club of Washington Marfield Prize A New York Times Book Review Editors Choice Selection This admiring and absorbing biography Deborah Solomon The New York Times Book Review charts Sam Wagstaff's incalculable influence on contemporary art photography and gay identity A legendary curator collector and patron of the arts Sam Wagstaff was a figure who stood at the intersection of gay life and the art world and brought glamour and daring to both Andrew Solomon Now in Philip Gfelter's groundbreaking biography he emerges as a cultural visionary Gfelter documents the influence of the man who although known today primarily as the mentor and lover of Robert Mapplethorpe almost invented the idea of photography as art Edmund White Wagstaff Before and After Mapplethorpe braids together Wagstaff's personal transformation from closeted society bachelor to a rebellious curator with a broader portrait of the tumultuous social cultural and sexual upheavals of the 1960s 70s and 80s creating a definitive portrait of a man and his era
