Against the State Crispin Sartwell,2014-02-07 In Against the State Crispin Sartwell unleashes a quick and brutal rejection of the traditional arguments for state legitimacy Sartwell considers the classics of Western political philosophy Hobbes Locke Rousseau Hegel Hume Bentham Rawls and Habermas among others and argues that their positions are not only wrong but also embarrassingly bad He separates the traditional pro state arguments into three classes social contract theories utilitarian justifications and justicial views all while attacking both general strategies and particular formulations Sartwell argues that the state rests on nothing but deadly force and its accompanying coercion and that no one is under any obligation to obey the law merely because it is the law He concludes by articulating a positive vision of an anarchist future based on the individualism of such figures as Emerson and Thoreau Against the State provides a rigorous and provocative foil to the classic texts and also serves as a concise statement of the anarchist challenge
