Objectivists Anthology:

An "objectivists" Anthology Louis Zukofsky, 1932      An Objectivists Anthology Louis Zukofsky, 1980-03-01      The Objectivists Andrew McAllister, 1996 The Objectivists were a group of left wing mainly Jewish American poets who formed a brief though important alliance in the 1930s when they felt poetry needed a new identity The guiding principles of Objectivist poetry were fresh vocabulary and musical shaping drawing on a stripped down but radiant language of images and perceptions The core of the group was formed by Louis Zukofsky George Oppen Charles Reznikoff and Carl Rakosi but Lorine Niedecker Kenneth Rexroth and Muriel Rukeyser were affiliated players as well as Basil Bunting in Britain They are especially interesting to us today because they took up the challenge of experiment with a modern ambitious lyric poetry sharpened by their experience of the new metropolitan city In the Objectivists heyday the Depression years they laid down examples which have been picked up in turn by the Black Mountain Poets and the Beat Generation and later by Postmodernism and which still remain fruitful The trademark smartness and brevity of Objectivist poetry along with a vital commitment to the spirit of the century make Andrew McAllister's anthology an exciting and relevant book for a new generation of poetry readers      New Collected Poems George Oppen, 2008 Michael Davidson has done a masterful job of editing this new edition of the Collected Poems Few poets significantly alter and enhance the state of the art Oppen is one of them Michael Palmer Bookforum      Something to Say William Carlos Williams, 1985 Something to Say William Carlos Williams on Younger Poets collects all of Williams known writings reviews essays introductions and letters to the editor on the two generations of poets that followed him from Kenneth Rexroth and Louis Zukofsky to Robert Lowell and Allen Ginsberg What might have been a random collection of occasional pieces achieves remarkable coherence from the singleness of Williams poetic vision his belief that the secret spirit of ritual of poetry was trapped in restrictive molds and if these could be broken the spirit would be able to live again in a new contemporary form Only a revived clarity and accuracy in sight and expression would enable the modern world to reform social order which Williams saw in complete disarray To resuscitate American Poetry Williams concentrated his efforts on the purification of poetic speech his American idiom and on remaking the poetic line in a new measure his variable foot And while his battles with his contemporaries on these issues could be heated he was always a nurturing father to the young a useful presence a model and a liberator He told Ginsberg to pare down and economize Roethke to open up and encouraged Lowell and Levertov to shake off poetic conventions But in all his emphasis on the poem as a made object of concrete physicality or as a field of action he would return again and again to this basic advice to young writers The only thing necessary is to have something to say when at last the opportunity comes to say it      American Objectivist Poetry Across the 20th Century Xavier Kalck, 2025-12-11 Offering a new introduction to an important yet overlooked group of 20th century American poets this book re-examines their work as a group while giving special attention to their individual trajectories      The Objectivist Nexus Peter Quartermain, Rachel Blau

DuPlessis,1999-07-02 Outstanding poets and critics present cultural readings of the Objectivist poets a group whose works have been largely unexamined      An "Objectivists" Anthology. Edited by L. Zukofsky Louis ZUKOFSKY,1932      The Objectivist Tradition in American Poetry Katharina Kullmer,2009-06-15 Seminar paper from the year 2006 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 1.0 University of Frankfurt Main language English abstract The Objectivist Tradition in American Poetry deals with a modern poetry that emerged in the 1930s in the United States The Objectivist poets were a loose knit group they were mainly American and were influenced by amongst others Ezra Pound and William Carlos Williams The basic tenets of Objectivist poetics as defined by objectivist poet Louis Zukofsky were to treat the poem as an object to use no word that isn't absolutely necessary for the presentation and to emphasise sincerity      Sagetrieb ,1994      The Oxford Encyclopedia of American Literature Jay Parini,2004 The Encyclopedia of American Literature gathers together 350 essays from over 190 leading scholars on the whole of American literature from European discovery to the present At the core of the Encyclopedia lie 250 essays on poets playwrights essayists and novelists Figures such as Whitman Melville Faulkner Frost and Morrison are discussed in detail with each examined in the context of his or her times an assessment of the writer's current reputation a bibliography of major works and a list of major critical and biographical works about the writer Fifty entries on major works such as Moby Dick Song of Myself Walden The Great Gatsby The Waste Land Their Eyes Were Watching God Death of a Salesman and Beloved place the work in its historical context and offer a range of possibilities with regard to critical approach The Encyclopedia also contains essays on literary movements periods and themes pulling together a broad range of information and making connections between them Each entry has its own primary and annotated secondary bibliography and a system of cross references helps readers locate information with ease The Encyclopedia of American Literature is an outstanding reference source for students studying authors or particular pieces of literature libraries looking for one comprehensive source and readers interested in American literature its authors and its connection with various areas of study      "Objectivists" 1927-1934 Tom Sharp,1982      An Objectivists Anthology, Edited by Louis Zukofsky William Carlos Williams,1933      The "Objectivists" Steel Wagstaff,2018 This dissertation examines the formation and early publications of the Objectivists a group of poets whose interrelations and aesthetic program have been inconsistently documented and frequently misunderstood The Objectivists were a group of roughly thirty modernist poets writing in English presented by Louis Zukofsky in the February 1931 issue of Poetry magazine and the subsequent An Objectivists Anthology published in 1932 While the group made little impact upon their initial appearance several of these poets emerged from obscurity to publish significant work in the 1960s forming an important bridge between Ezra Pound and other first generation modernists to various post WWII schools in American poetry Drawing heavily on contemporaneous archival material this dissertation argues that the group's nucleation as Objectivists was not the result of a programmatic movement but a strategy to achieve reliable publication The section entitled The Lives gives a historical account of the group

s formation beginning in 1928 and argues for the existence of an Objectivist core consisting of Zukofsky William Carlos Williams Charles Reznikoff George Oppen Basil Bunting Carl Rakosi and Lorine Niedecker In addition it details the relationships of Ezra Pound Robert McAlmon and Kenneth Rexroth to the group and to Zukofsky and Williams in particular The section also offers capsule biographies for the remaining Objectivists many of whom are lesser known and provides an extended biography of Carl Rakosi the only core Objectivist without an extant book length critical biography The section entitled The Work provides clear documentary evidence of the group s efforts between 1928 1935 to gain access to publication paying special attention to a series of joint publishing efforts and detailing a series of overlapping relationships between Pound Williams Zukofsky and the editors of more than dozen little magazines The section also provides detailed career publication histories for Niedecker and Rakosi Much of the material in this section has not been previously examined or presented in detail This dissertation is the print analogue of a public facing website which includes additional interactive and multimedia resources as well as links to a wide variety of archival material that has been digitized in support of this project

Poetry Harriet Monroe,1930     The Politics of the Poetic Machine Jeffrey Duane Peterson,1993     Louis Zukofsky and the Poetry of Knowledge Mark Scroggins,1998 Provides a provocative and advanced introduction to the thought and writing of Louis Zukofsky aptly described as one of the first postmodernists Poet translator and editor Louis Zukofsky was born in New York City in 1904 Raised to speak first Yiddish and then English he was fascinated by language from an early age This deep preoccupation with language its musicality complex constructions and fluid meaning later became a key component in the development of his poetry Friend to William Carlos Williams Marianne Moore and Ezra Pound mentor to Robert Creeley and influence on many of the Language Movement poets Zukofsky and his work stand squarely at the center of American poetry s transition from modernism to postmodernism Mark Scroggins advances thoughtful readings of Zukofsky s key critical essays a wide variety of his shorter poems and his poem of a life A He carefully situates Zukofsky within his literary and historical contexts examining his relationship to Pound his 1930s Marxist politics and his sense of himself as a Jewish modernist poet Scroggins also places Zukofsky within an ongoing tradition of American poetry including the work of Wallace Stevens Charles Bernstein Ronald Johnson Michael Palmer and John Taggart

The Object Beyond the Image H. Randolph Chilton,1981     The Facts on File Companion to American Poetry Burt Kimmelman, Temple Cone, Randall Huff,2008 An introduction to American poets poetry and literary movements from colonial times to the 21st century     A Critical Edition of the Collected Poems of Lorine Niedecker Tandy Jennifer Sturgeon,1990
