Object Stories Steve Brown, Anne Clarke, Ursula Frederick, 2016-06-16 Archaeologists are synonymous with artifacts. With artifacts we construct stories concerning past lives and livelihoods yet we rarely write of deeply personal encounters or of the way the lives of objects and our lives become enmeshed. In this volume 23 archaeologists each tell an intimate story of their experience and entanglement with an evocative artifact. Artifacts range from a New Britain obsidian tool to an abandoned Viking toy boat, the marble finger of a classical Greek statue and ordinary pottery fragments from Roman England and Polynesia. Other tales cover contemporary objects including a toothpick bell door and the blueprint for a 1970s motorcar. These creative stories are self-consciously personal; they derive from real-world encounter viewed through the peculiarities and material intimacy of archaeological practice. This text can be used in undergraduate and graduate courses focused on archaeological interpretation and theory as well as on material culture and story telling.

Aesthetic Essays Malcolm Budd, 2008-11-06 Malcolm Budd presents a selection of his work in aesthetics. Some essays deal with the abstract heart of aesthetics issues such as the nature and scope of the aesthetic, the validity of aesthetic judgements, realism and anti-realism, pleasure and value and the aim of art. Others focus on specific art forms: music and pictorial representation.

Writing Performance, Identity, and Everyday Life Ronald J. Pelias, 2018-03-13 Writing Performance Identity and Everyday Life invites the reader into Ronald J. Pelias' world of artistic and everyday performance. Calling upon a broad range of qualitative methods, these selected writings from Pelias submerge themselves in the evocative and embodied in the material and consequential, often creating moving accounts of their topics. The book is divided into four sections: Foundational Logics, Performance Identity and Everyday Life. Part I addresses the methodological underpinnings of the book, focusing on the touchstones that inform Pelias' work: performative, autoethnographic, poetic and narrative methods. These directions push the researcher toward empathic engagement, a leaning toward others using the literary to evoke the cognitive and affective aspects of experience and an ethical sensibility located in social justice. Parts II-IV focus on artistic and everyday life performances, including discussions of the disciplinary shift from the oral interpretation of literature to the field of performance studies, empathy and the actor's process, conceptions of performance, the performance of race, gender and sexuality and performances in interpersonal relations and academic circles. By the end, readers will see Pelias demonstrate the power of qualitative methods to engage and to present alternative ways of being. Pelias' work shows us how to understand and feel the evocative strength of thinking performatively.
