unforgettable songs of the past Although rhythm and rhyme are critical meter has been manipulated for artistic impact They aim for a place where sense and sound merge into the beautiful and true The poetry addresses issues of the head and the heart exploring philosophy government and human nature It revisits old ideas in an effort to make them live in a way not seen before The poets mind wanders not knowing where it will alight Milton and His Kind Shelley Keats and Tennyson With voices made to last Have been replaced by charlatans Who cry freedom from the past Freedom from excellence Is the hallmark of their craft Great intellects are rarely found In an artistic overdraft The minds who might thrill The thoughtful and the wise Are seldom seen in poetry For the world has passed them by What passes for verse Assaulting our mind Is unworthy of a race Spawning Milton and his kind

Wharton,2010-10 Trapped in Oblivion Richard D. Jr. Kydd,Richard Kydd, Jr.,2004 In Trapped in Oblivion Between the Rule of Heaven and Hell poet Richard D Kydd Jr describes exactly that human condition Souls at once held in the hand and vision of God while suffering the struggles of the damned and blind And therein lies Kydd s gift the ability to realistically portray both the endless human capacity for hope and love amid a life of sorrow and loss His ability to reconcile this paradox and juxtapose hope and despair in the same poem is what makes his work so compelling As in his previous work Kydd shows wide range In By the Pale Moonlight he describes the moon as simultaneously A barren desolate environment of rock a bureaucratic reason to spend billions a beacon showing lovers the way to the heart and finally with tongue in cheek an excuse for a poem s subject matter Kydd understands illusion well and the theme runs throughout his work Oh God Dear God presents a typical happy family then bluntly and unexpectedly shocks at the end He speaks often of the mirage of money and power and of the soul losing its way in pursuit of illusory happiness Yet in the end he always gives hope In Star Bright he may say sarcastically Lactose intolerant to your Mama s tit as he depicts the fate of the outcast But in Rings of Fire he promises Life has blessed us one to another in this day of our love In The Shadow of a Friend Kydd says You know my dear Sister Haven t you looked upon her face You call her Life I am her Brother To you I am Death Come be one with me It is the mark of his maturity as a poet that Kydd is able to help the reader reconcile life with death and accept our fate as human beings
