Philosophy between the Islamicate and Latin American Traditions

Anthony F. Shaker,Amílcar Aldama Cruz,2025-11-18 Latin America is a diverse mosaic of cultures that trace their origins back to Indigenous African Spanish Portuguese and Islamic sources Its philosophies eloquently expressed by a long line of thinkers are found not just in departments of philosophy but also in its rich literature and art which are given treatment in this volume The Islamicate world is a unique fourteen century old cultural mosaic that covers much of the known world Despite its long civilizational experience it too faces the challenge of emancipation from foreign domination and the chaotic cacophony of monologues afflicting our time The papers collected here cover various aspects of the philosophies of these two constantly interacting traditions and how they impinge on an old problematic ghayriyya otherness and alienation Their themes include key figures like Ibn Arab Suhraward A mad b Mu af a al Alaw Rudolfo Kusch Jos Mart Spain s Moriscos and contemporary Argentine philosophers and expanding areas of research like the philosophy of the Nahua popularly known as the Aztec and the language reforms in T rkiye both of which provide excellent examples of cultural self alienation

Sanderson,2024-06-04 As oil rich Mexico faces the 1980s conflicts between agrarian populism and capitalist industrialization call for resolution The internal peace and political stability that made the period between the late 1930s and the early 1970s so productive left many Mexicans particularly the campesinos marginal to the benefits of the economy During this period of economic growth agrarian reform the trademark of the Mexican revolution was relegated to a position of lesser importance in national politics But with forty percent of the population still remaining in the countryside it is clear that programs for rural development and land redistribution must again be given prominence In this study of Sonora a key agricultural state in northwestern Mexico Steven E Sanderson examines in economic and political terms the post revolutionary rise of agrarian reform and its decline dividing the sixty years of change from 1917 to 1976 into three periods Agrarian populism dominated the first which he calls a time of post revolutionary consolidation 1917 1940 Then during the miracle years of 1940 1970 the growing strength of capital and the success of state led import substitution plans led to a counterreform in agrarian politics In the final period that of President Echeverria's populist resurgence 1970 1976 ambitious but flawed agrarian reform plans clashed with the sector that favored the increasing concentration of land income and political influence Sonora provides a particularly interesting view of these developments because of its political and geographical distance from metropolitan Mexico its rich history of independence its economic growth since the revolution and the political sophistication of its residents The events in this state exemplify the regional imbalances the ideological biases and the political manipulations contributing to the crisis in state legitimacy that dominated Mexican politics in the 1970s Using a combination of agrarian census materials state archives newspapers records from relevant ministries and selected interviews with participants Sanderson presents the complex history of conflict between the political base supporting agrarian reform and the economic forces advocating industrialization and economic growth This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1981      *Monthly Bulletin of the Providence Public Library ...
