Change Your Life With Emotional Intelligence Christine Wilding,2010-06-25 Change Your Life with Emotional

Intelligence takes Daniel Goleman's revolutionary psychological theory and transforms it into practical self help for you to boost emotional awareness in any part of your life. It introduces you to the principles of EI explaining why the qualities of assertiveness, perception, motivation, etc. really matter if you want to live a fulfilled and successful life. The book takes an applied approach encouraging you first to understand your own emotional identity then to develop life skills like developing a sense of responsibility, overcoming anger and being more assertive. It will help you to use these skills to transform relationships with those around you either in the workplace or in personal relationships and will even offer insight into how to help your children develop emotional intelligence. It is full of interactive exercises, top tips and motivational quotes and offers plenty of further resources. NOT GOT MUCH TIME One five and ten minute introductions to key principles to get you started. AUTHOR INSIGHTS Lots of instant help with common problems and quick tips for success based on the author's many years of experience. TEST YOURSELF Tests in the book and online to keep track of your progress. EXTEND YOUR KNOWLEDGE Extra online articles at www.teachyourself.com to give you a richer understanding of emotional intelligence. FIVE THINGS TO REMEMBER Quick refreshers to help you remember the key facts. TRY THIS Innovative exercises illustrate what you've learnt and how to use it.

Emotional Intelligence Workbook: For Elementary and Middle Grade Children Better Youth Programs, 2019-03-02

Emotional Intelligence is a vital skill for children often overlooked. Not only is it overlooked but there is seldom good workbooks available aimed directly at children. This activity book is a treasure trove of wonderful exercises that get kids thinking about their own emotions, create self esteem, empower good behaviours and habits and develop consideration for others. Don't neglect to teach your kids a solid emotional intelligence to help them become strong to weather the storm coming up in teenage years. This section of the Youth Deployment Activity Guide is designed to give you additional age appropriate resources that are helpful in teaching your child about emotions. The emotional and social skills that are presented were written in order to help you grow your child. The sections include Intrapersonal Skills, Interpersonal Skills, Adaptability, Stress Management and General Mood. Each section is further divided into sub skills that address such things as Problem Solving, Happiness, Flexibility and other critical emotional and social competencies. We encourage you to use these activities throughout the deployment process and beyond.

Sample Exercises from Emotional Intelligence Activities for Kids: My Special Gifts and Talents. Everyone has something they do well. It may be in a sport or playing a musical instrument or even a particular subject like math. A person can even be good at making friends. Whatever a person does well can be a gift or talent. See if you can recognize your own gifts and talents. Piecing a Quilt

Many emotions make up the person you are. It is important to be able to identify those emotions and know how to deal with them. Your emotions are like a patchwork quilt. Each of your emotions is pieced together to make up the whole you. Inside the patches on the quilt below draw a face showing different emotions you have felt. Make No Bones About It Do your friends sometimes do or say things that make you feel uncomfortable? Maybe they say unkind things to other classmates. Or maybe they take the seat you were saving for someone and won't move when you ask them. Do you feel like you should speak up about it but are afraid? Here are some steps to take to help you speak up. A Skeleton of My Former Self Independence is when you are able to take care of yourself. You are able to plan and make important decisions for yourself and you can make those decisions without falling apart or depending on others to bail you out emotionally. You are courteous, honest and respectful of yourself and others. You are willing to take responsibility for your feelings, thoughts and actions. You rely on others for help when necessary but do not cling to other people.
