Getting Hitched David Upham,2015-06-21 Marriage rates are plummeting even though the number of marriage minded people remains high Why has marriage become so elusive so difficult to do so hard to achieve In this book Dr David Upham identifies the main cause men and women have forgotten how to engage in the mutual attraction necessary for marriage Drawing from popular culture personal experience literature history science philosophy and above all common sense he explains with candor and humor the forgotten basic truths of mutual attraction both why we've forgotten and what we've forgotten But Getting Hitched doesn't leave marriage minded men and women without a game plan it provides a step by step guide to help you restore and build your confidence and achieve your relationship goals If marriage is on your mind these time honored and battle tested truths will help you get there

The Lancet-clinic ,1914 Causation & Causality S. K. Leung,2002 With David Hume's profound philosophical doubts on causation at the background this book attempts to answer many difficult questions The author ridicules Spinoza's idea of causation in the form of Given a cause its effect will follow as of necessity Here the author introduces the notion of epistemological priority and temporal continuum to explain the ordinary conception of causation in connection with space and time This bold analysis of causation is seen as an answer to Hume Causation and causality are but epistemological reality that does not alter the metaphysical reality of nature itself
