The Noun Phrase in Functional Discourse Grammar Daniel García Velasco, Jan Rijkhoff, 2008 The articles in this volume analyse the noun phrase within the framework of Functional Discourse Grammar FDG the successor to Simon C Dik s Functional Grammar In its current form FDG has an explicit top down organization and distinguishes four hierarchically organized interacting levels i the interpersonal level language as communicational process ii the representational level language as a carrier of content iii the morphosyntactic level and iv the phonological level Together they constitute the grammatical component which in its turn interacts with a cognitive and a communicative component This comprehensive approach to linguistic analysis is also reflected in this volume which contains rich and substantial contributions concerning many different aspects of the noun phrase At the same time the analysis of a major linguistic construction from various perspectives is an excellent way to test a new model of grammar with regard to some of the standards of adequacy for linguistic theories The book contains several papers dealing with matters of representation and formalization of the noun phrase the articles by Kees Hengeveld Jos Luis Gonz lez Escribano Jan Rijkhoff and Evelien Keizer Other contributors are more concerned with the practical application of the model with regard to discourse interpersonal matters Chris Butler John H Connolly whereas the chapters by Dik Bakker and Roland Pfau and by Daniel Garc a Velasco deal with morphosyntactic issues In all the variety of issues addressed and the range of languages considered prove that one of the important advantages of the FDG model is precisely the fact that grammatical phenomena can be treated from a semantic pragmatic morpho syntactic phonological or textual perspective in a coherent fashion

What Jesus Did for Me Yvonne John, 2011-12-27 What Jesus Did For Me is the title of my book and the very first poem I wrote I went through a period of depression brought on by tormenting voices in my head At the time most of the people around me associated the depression with Seasonal Affective Disorder S A D as it mainly seemed to affect me during the winter months It wasnt until I became a Born Again Christian that I discovered that the problem was actually spiritual During the time that I suffered from depression I lost all my confidence and self esteem I had no hope I became nervous and fearful and I wanted to give up and die The voices made me believe that I was no good I was useless but most of all that I was a wicked and bad person I got to a point where I didnt recognise myself anymore I had always considered myself to be good person reliable dependable kind thoughtful and caring Suddenly I was told I was somebody different This became too much for me to bear Even worse the voices told me that God would reject me He would never love me and He would turn me away if I went to Him Being raised as a Catholic I believed that God loved everyone so I was absolutely devastated when I believed that I was not good enough to be loved by God Eight months after becoming Born Again the Holy Spirit would visit me during the early hours of the morning He would minister words of peace and comfort to me This brought healing to my pain I now feel safe secure and significant I now know that I have purpose to my life My poems seek to edify encourage and inspire other readers and to let them know that Jesus not only changes lives but He also heals brings peace joy hope and comfort into our lives My book is written in a poetic style My poems depict my journey to salvation and illustrate how I have grown and matured in Christ As you read through my poems you will experience the sense of new hope strength and joy that God has given me through having a relationship with Jesus Christ Every one of my poems was Holy Spirit inspired to bring comfort and healing but many of them also serve as words of wisdom warning direction and praise They also show how God inhabits the praises of His people and how ones praise can completely change your circumstances around Allow the Holy Spirit to minister to you as He ministered to me as you read through the pages of What Jesus Did For Me FLYING START : - Jilid 2A ,
