Collier's Hansi,1911      Burren Country Paul Clements,2011-05-14 For 20 years Paul Clements has been tapping into the Burren s hidden crevices drawn to its history mystery and peculiarities He writes absorbingly about the rocks hills and walls and the range of colours the animals he rubs shoulders with and about subjects which excite him such as the exotic wild flowers ancient ruins early morning birdsong and the smell of whiskey in historic pubs A hunter and gatherer of information and lore on the Burren the author ferrets out little known facts and weaves them together to create these carefully distilled essays      Country Life in the War Henry Hodgman Saylor,1919      Moore's Rural New Yorker ,1920

Canada Lumberman and Woodworker ,1920      Country Life ,1909      Country Life Illustrated ,1921      The Country Gentleman ,1930      Beyond the Last Village Alan Rabinowitz,2001-08 The author describes his journey through the uncharted lands of northern Myanmar describing new species and trying to persuade the government to preserve the land

The Rural New-Yorker ,1920      What Else Is Pastoral? Ken Hiltner,2011-03-18 Pastoral was one of the most popular literary forms of early modern England Inspired by classical and Italian Renaissance antecedents writers from Ben Jonson to John Beaumont and Abraham Cowley wrote in idealized terms about the English countryside It is often argued that the Renaissance pastoral was a highly figurative mode of writing that had more to do with culture and politics than with the actual countryside of England For decades now literary criticism has had it that in pastoral verse hills and crags and moors were extolled for their metaphoric worth rather than for their own qualities In What Else Is Pastoral Ken Hiltner takes a fresh look at pastoral offering an environmentally minded reading that reconnects the poems with literal landscapes not just figurative ones Considering the pastoral in literature from Virgil and Petrarch to Jonson and Milton Hiltner proposes a new ecocritical approach to these texts We only become truly aware of our environment he explains when its survival is threatened As London expanded rapidly during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries the city and surrounding rural landscapes began to look markedly different Hiltner finds that Renaissance writers were acutely aware that the countryside they had known was being lost to air pollution deforestation and changing patterns of land use their works suggest this new absence of nature through their appreciation for the scraps that remained in memory or in fact A much needed corrective to the prevailing interpretation of pastoral poetry What Else Is Pastoral shows the value of reading literature with an ecological eye
