Nietzsche and Zen André van der Braak,2011-08-16 In Nietzsche and Zen Self Overcoming Without a Self Andr van der Braak engages Nietzsche in a dialogue with four representatives of the Buddhist Zen tradition Nagarjuna c 150 250 Linji d 860 Dogen 1200 1253 and Nishitani 1900 1990 In doing so he reveals Nietzsche s thought as a philosophy of continuous self overcoming in which even the notion of self has been overcome Van der Braak begins by analyzing Nietzsche s relationship to Buddhism and status as a transcultural thinker recalling research on Nietzsche and Zen to date and setting out the basic argument of the study He continues by examining the practices of self overcoming in Nietzsche and Zen comparing Nietzsche s radical skepticism with that of Nagarjuna and comparing Nietzsche s approach to truth to Linji s Nietzsche s methods of self overcoming are compared to Dogen s zazen or sitting meditation practice and Dogen s notion of forgetting the self These comparisons and others build van der Braak s case for acriticism of Nietzsche informed by the ideas of Zen Buddhism and a criticism of Zen Buddhism seen through the Western lens of Nietzsche coalescing into one world philosophy This treatment focusing on one of the most fruitful areas of research within contemporary comparative and intercultural philosophy will be useful to Nietzsche scholars continental philosophers and comparative philosophers

Nietzsche's "Ecce Homo" Nicholas Martin,Duncan Large,2020-12-16 Friedrich Nietzsche s intellectual autobiography Ecce Homo has always been a controversial book Nietzsche prepared it for publication just before he became incurably insane in early 1889 but it was held back until after his death and finally appeared only in 1908 For much of the first century of its reception Ecce Homo met with a sceptical response and was viewed as merely a testament to its author s incipient madness This was hardly surprising since he is deliberately outrageous with the megalomaniacal self advertisement of his chapter titles and brazenly claims I am not a man I am dynamite as he attempts to explode one preconception after another in the Western philosophical tradition In recent decades there has been increased interest in the work especially in the English speaking world but the present volume is the first collection of essays in any language devoted to the work Most of the essays are selected from the proceedings of an international conference held in London to mark the centenary of the first publication of Ecce Homo in 2008 They are supplemented by a number of specially commissioned essays Contributors include established and emerging Nietzsche scholars from the UK and USA Germany and France Portugal Sweden and the Netherlands
