My First Trumpet Duets:

The Music of Hugh Wood Edward Venn, 2017-07-05 The Music of Hugh Wood provides the first ever in depth study of this well known yet only briefly documented composer Over the years Wood b 1932 has produced a sizeable oeuvre that explores the established genres of symphony concerto and quartet on the one hand and songs and choruses on the other Underpinned by an awareness of recent philosophical theoretical and analytical concepts Dr Edward Venn highlights both the technical basis of Wood s music and the expressive force of his work In doing so a picture emerges of Wood as an artist of considerable merit and power The eclectic blend of national and international influences in the music of Hugh Wood combine to create an individual and distinctive musical language all his own The book provides an overview of Wood s style focussing on his engagement with modernism and the melodic rhythmic harmonic and formal characteristics of his musical language From here a more detailed consideration of Wood s development as a composer is advanced in which his technical development is illustrated alongside an exploration of various aspects of musical meaning embodied in his works In the process numerous analytical strategies ranging from formalist to narrative structures are utilized demonstrating the fecundity and expressivity of Wood s music

Autobiography of Edward Clarke Wentz Edward Clarke Wentz, 2024-11-01 Every person has been given two very important dates in their lives The first is the year of their birth The second is the year of their death If you are reading this you have not reached the second date But you do possess the very important dash that will go between these two major dates that you are living with right now When you receive the second and final date your life is over It is that dash that this book is all about and what this author has experienced in his current long life of eighty three years and still going strong I will take you along on my journey of all the things I have done from crazy to dumb as a forward to maybe inspire you or people you know to do some of the same The incredibly difficult ride for young people today is going to be tough and the more opportunities opened to them might just help them have a rewarding life as good or better than mine I survived almost being killed in a tornado flipped a speedboat and came close to drowning invented water skiing on a ping pong paddle sold tract homes for a developer when the interest rate topped 18 percent and had prospective buyers camp out in my sales office parking lot for a week waiting for a new phase of homes to open for sales I also moved a lot after leaving Wisconsin and lived in San Diego Orange County Texas Colorado and Idaho I have known so many wonderful and great people in my long life from family aunts and uncles cousins teachers musicians and students that if I received my last date tomorrow I will have had a very fulfilling and wonderful life What will you do with your dash

The Conductor's Legacy Paula A. Crider, 2010 What would you ask the leading band directors of our time in a one on one conversation Paula A Crider a seasoned and distinguished band director in her own right shares the wealth of knowledge gleaned from her interviews of the extraordinary personalities who have changed the landscape of the wind band world in this remarkable book With insight and clarity of thought she asks the probing questions that prompt stories of talent work sacrifice ingenuity bravery and determination These pioneering and innovative conductors share their concept of band sound views on score marking advice to music majors and young band directors thoughts on how to advance the wind band genre the elements of their musical success and much more about the art and craft of conducting a band In calling forth these thoughts the author inspires these leaders of the wind band profession to remind us all not only of where we have come from but also provide a stirring handoff to us and to future generations Bandmaster ,1927 Music Appreciation in the Schoolroom
