Asian Perspectives on Teacher Education Shin'ichi Suzuki, Edward R. Howe, 2013-09-13 Research into teacher education is dominated by Anglophone literature with the inevitable result that teacher education in non English speaking regions of the world largely remains unexamined This book fills the gap in the existing literature and comprises twelve invited contributions from an international panel of educationists To provide the reader with a clear structure the book offers a detailed introduction and afterword which brings together the various themes examined in each chapter The contributions offer perspectives on teacher education in the Asian region perspectives which until now have been missing from contemporary debate on teacher education Presenting research from Australia Japan the USA the People s Republic of China the Republic of Korea and Vietnam this book examines the varied situations teacher educators experience in their own countries in so doing the researchers identify resonances and dissonances in comparison with the dominant Anglophone research literature on the same subjects This book is an important contribution to the comparative study of teacher education in the first decade of the twenty first century giving a voice to an important sector of the international community of teacher educators This book was published as a special issue of Journal of Education for Teaching International research and pedagogy Policy and the Political Life of Music Education Patrick Schmidt,Richard Colwell,2017-02-01 Policy and the Political Life of Music Education is the first book of its kind in the field of Music Education It offers a far reaching and innovative outlook bringing together expert voices who provide a multifaceted and global set of insights into a critical arena for action today policy On one hand the book helps the novice to make sense of what policy is how it functions and how it is discussed in various parts of the world while on the other it offers the experienced educator a set of critically written analyses that outline the state of the play of music education policy thinking As policy participation remains largely underexplored in music education the book helps to clarify to teachers how policy thinking does shape educational action and directly influences the nature extent and impact of our programs The goal is to help readers understand the complexities of policy and to become better skilled in how to think speak and act in policy terms The book provides new ways to understand and therefore imagine policy approximating it to the lives of educators and highlighting its importance and impact This is an essential read for anyone interested in change and how to better understand decision making within music and education Finally this book while aimed at the growth of music educators knowledge base regarding policy also fosters open thinking regarding policy as subject helping educators straddling arts and education to recognize that policy thinking can offer creative designs for educational change The ^AOxford Handbook of Assessment Policy and Practice in Music Education, Volume 1 Timothy S. Brophy,2019-01-02 In this two volume Handbook contributors from across the globe provide expert perspectives on the assessment measurement and evaluation of student learning in music The Routledge Handbook to Sociology of Music Education Ruth Wright,Geir Johansen,Panagiotis A. Kanellopoulos,Patrick Schmidt,2021-03-29 The Routledge Handbook to Sociology of Music Education is a comprehensive authoritative and state of the art review of current research in the field The opening introduction orients the reader to the field highlights recent developments and draws together concepts and research methods to be covered The chapters that follow are written by respected experienced experts on key issues in their area of specialisation From separate beginnings in the United States Europe and the United Kingdom in the mid twentieth century the field of the sociology of music education has and continues to experience rapid and global development It could be argued that this Handbook marks its coming of age The Handbook is dedicated to the exclusive and explicit application of sociological constructs and theories to issues such as globalisation immigration post colonialism inter generational musicking socialisation inclusion exclusion hegemony symbolic violence and popular culture Contexts range from formal compulsory schooling to non formal communal environments to informal music making and listening The Handbook is aimed at graduate students researchers and professionals but will also be a useful text for undergraduate students in music education and cultural studies      Global Trends in Media Education Tony Lavender, Birgitte Tufte, Dafna Lemish, 2003 Over the last decades Media Education has gradually obtained an educational status in many countries throughout the world although few countries have actually incorporated this subject in their formal school curricula Where Media Education is taught today it is principally carried out using a relaxed pluralistic and a cross or multidisciplinary approach This book sets out to explore this new approach to the subject via chapters that are representative of ongoing work by leading Media Education researchers in nine different countries and from all five continents Media Education is continually evolving and the individual chapters indicate that the passion for the subject is global while the actual translations of practices and policies are very much local The book expands the debate about Media Education beyond the traditions and interests of one part of the world to encompass the needs of the rest      Handbook of Research on Music Teaching and Learning Richard Colwell, Music Educators National Conference (U.S.), 1992
