The Man of the Forest Zane Grey,2020-08-02 At sunset hour the forest was still lonely sweet with tang of fir and spruce blazing in gold and red and green and the man who glided on under the great trees seemed to blend with the colors and disappearing to have become a part of the wild woodland Old Baldy highest of the White Mountains stood up round and bare rimmed bright gold in the last glow of the setting sun Then as the fire dropped behind the domed peak a change a cold and darkening blight passed down the black spear pointed slopes over all that mountain world It was a wild richly timbered and abundantly watered region of dark forests and grassy parks ten thousand feet above sea level isolated on all sides by the southern Arizona desert the virgin home of elk and deer of bear and lion of wolf and fox and the birthplace as well as the hiding place of the fierce Apache September in that latitude was marked by the sudden cool night breeze following shortly after sundown Twilight appeared to come on its wings as did faint sounds not distinguishable before in the stillness Milt Dale man of the forest halted at the edge of a timbered ridge to listen and to watch Beneath him lay a narrow valley open and grassy from which rose a faint murmur of running water Its music was pierced by the wild staccato yelp of a hunting coyote From overhead in the giant fir came a twittering and rustling of grouse settling for the night and from across the valley drifted the last low calls of wild turkeys going to roost To Dale s keen ear these sounds were all they should have been betokening an unchanged serenity of forestland He was glad for he had expected to hear the clipclop of white men s horses which to hear up in those fastnesses was hateful to him He and the Indian were friends That fierce foe had no enmity toward the lone hunter But there hid somewhere in the forest a gang of bad men sheep thieves whom Dale did not want to meet As he started out upon the slope a sudden flaring of the afterglow of sunset flooded down from Old Baldy filling the valley with lights and shadows yellow and blue like the radiance of the sky The pools in the curves of the brook shone darkly bright

Schramm,2014-02 Imagine you are a young person seeking an education career a loving family a dream home and all the good things this world has to offer Having gone to college married your soul mate conceived a miraculous son and built your dream home you are well on your way when you are diagnosed with a brain tumor and told by a neurosurgeon that you are going to go blind and die But God saves your life in an eight hour brain surgery He gives you an incredible near death experience in a second brain surgery in which you are shown amazing knowledge that is so far above what this world knows that you are filled with the unspeakable joy of being able to understand this knowledge Then God removes all this understanding from you except for two words and calls you to recreate this knowledge from the Bible and share it with others Come with me as we recreate this knowledge by piecing together amazing truths and hidden wisdom found in the Word of God and we will learn things we never knew that we never knew The word mystery is found in the Bible some twenty one times along with many parables signs metaphors and symbolic language Someone once described the Bible as a ten thousand piece puzzle to be solved without the benefit of a picture on the box to guide you We will piece together these truths going into the ancient Hebrew and Greek definitions when necessary to understand what the writers of the Bible understood to create a picture of reality that goes far beyond this world we know This understanding will challenge what we believe to be true and change what we desire in our hearts And that is exactly what the Bible was meant to do
