Managing Credit Programs In Continuing Higher Education:

Managing Credit Programs in Continuing Higher Education Joe F. Donaldson, 1990 In this discussion of managing continuing education credit programming units three themes emerge The first theme is that unit administrators must rely upon leverage or influence to coordinate programs effectively and to gain the institution's acceptance of policies and procedures that support the credit programming unit and the adult learners it serves The second theme is the comprehensive nature of organizing and administering credit courses and programs Administrators must simultaneously juggle needs assessment budgeting marketing student recruitment and retention program development program coordination faculty participation and development budgeting and financing various modes of course and program delivery student support services and course and program evaluation while also attending to the demands and constraints imposed by external agencies and by the parent institution The third theme is opportunity Continuing education credit programming has reached a stage of maturity during the past decade The potential for stimulation and personal and professional growth through such opportunities is boundless Unit administrators must be willing to participate fully and proficiently in leading higher education into a new era of educational service to adults 34 references CML Resources in Education ,1991 Contemporary Issues in American Distance Education Michael G. Moore, 1990 Distance Learning in America is characterised by an enormous variety of institutions programs media and pedagogical methods This book attempts to draw together an overall picture of the rapid growth and achievements in the field of American distance education and the problems and issues that confront it The book is aimed primarily at the university and college teacher and student and particularly at graduate students in adult and distance education and other related fields It aims to provide a cross sectional view of the administrative and policy issues the questions about learners and instruction the problems of curriculum and course design and the new conceptual and theoretical concerns of some of the country's foremost practitioners and thinkers Credit and Financial Management ,1915 Publications of the State of Illinois Illinois.
