Matta Making The Invisible Visible:

Matta Roberto Sebastián Matta Echaurren, Elizabeth T. Goizueta, 2004 Catalog of an exhibition held at the McMullen Museum of Art Boston College Feb 1 May 24 2004    Severo Sarduy and the Neo-baroque Image of Thought in the Visual Arts Rolando Perez, 2012 Severo Sarduy never enjoyed the same level of notoriety as did other Latin American writers. On the other hand he never lacked for excellent critical interpretations of his work from critics like Roberto González Echevarría, René Prieto, Gustavo Guerrero and other reputable scholars. Missing however from what is otherwise an impressive body of critical commentary is a study of the importance of painting and architecture first to his theory and second to his creative work. In order to fill this lacuna in Sarduy studies Rolando Pérez's book undertakes a critical approach to Sarduy's essays Barroco Escrito sobre un cuerpo Barroco y neobarroco and La simulación from the stand point of art history. In short no book on Sarduy until now has traced the multifaceted art historical background that informed the work of this challenging and exciting writer. It will be a book that many a critic of Sarduy and the Latin American baroque will consult in years to come.

Surrealism and the Gothic Neil Matheson, 2017-08-07 Surrealism and the Gothic is the first book length analysis of the role played by the gothic in both the initial emergence of surrealism and at key moments in its subsequent development as an art and literary movement. The book argues the strong and sustained influence not only of the classic gothic novel itself (Ann Radcliffe, Charles Maturin, Matthew Lewis, etc.) but also the determinative impact of closely related phenomena as with the influence of mediumism, alchemy and magic. The book also traces the later development of the gothic novel as with Bram Stoker's Dracula and its mutation into such works of popular fiction as the Fantomas series of Marcel Allain and Pierre Souvestre, enthusiastically taken up by writers such as Apollinaire and subsequently feeding into the development of surrealism. More broadly the book considers a range of motifs strongly associated with gothic writing as with insanity, incarceration and the accused outsider explored in relation to the personal experience and electroshock treatment of Antonin Artaud. A recurring motif of the analysis is that of the gothic castle developed in the writings of André Breton, Artaud, Sade, Julien Gracq and other writers as well as in the work of visual artists such as Magritte.

Matta Matta, Olivier Malingue, 2004    Historical Dictionary of Contemporary Art Ann Lee Morgan, 2016-12-05 The Historical Dictionary of Contemporary Art illuminates important artists, styles and movements of the past 70 years. Beginning with the immediate post World War II period, it encompasses earlier 20th century masters including Pablo Picasso, Henri Matisse, Henry Moore, Alberto Giacometti, Joan Miró, Jean Dubuffet, Stuart Davis, Georgia O'Keeffe and other well known figures who remained creatively productive while also inspiring younger generations. The book covers subsequent developments including abstract expressionism, happenings, pop art, minimalism, conceptual art, arte povera, feminist art, photorealism, neo expressionism and postmodernism as well as the contributions of such artists as Jackson Pollock, Willem de Kooning, Mark Rothko, Helen Frankenthaler, Joan Mitchell, Robert Rauschenberg, David Hockney, Ellsworth Kelly, Francis Bacon, Louise Bourgeois, Lucio

Fontana Andy Warhol Richard Serra Donald Judd Joseph Beuys Christo Anselm Kiefer Judy Chicago Ai Weiwei and Jeff Koons Historical Dictionary of Contemporary Art contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography including more than 900 cross referenced entries on important artists styles terms and movements This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about contemporary art

Barnett Newman and

Heideggerian Philosophy Claude Cernuschi,2012-03-22 As a major member of the New York School Barnett Newman is celebrated for his radical explorations of color and scale and as a precursor to the Minimalist movement for his significant contribution to the development of twentieth century American art But if his reputation and place in history have grown progressively more secure the work he produced remains highly resistant to interpretation His paintings are rigorously abstract and his writings full of references to arcane metaphysical concepts Frustrated over their inability to reconcile the works with what the artist said about them some critics have dismissed the paintings as impenetrable The art historian Yve Alain Bois called Newman the most difficult artist he could name and the philosopher Jean François Lyotard declared that there is almost nothing to consume in his work or if there is I do not know what it is In order to advance interpretation this book investigates both Newman's writings and paintings in light of ideas articulated by one of Germany's most important and influential philosophers Martin Heidegger Many of the themes explored in Newman's statements and echoed in the titles of his paintings betray numerous points of intersection with Heidegger's philosophy the question of origins the distinctiveness of human presence a person's sense of place the sensation of terror the definition of freedom the importance of mood to existence the particularities of art and language the impact of technology on modern life the meaning of time and the human being's relationship to others and to the divine When examined in the context of Heideggerian thought these issues acquire greater concreteness and in turn their relation to the artist's paintings becomes clearer It is the contention of this book that at the intersection of art history and philosophy an interdisciplinary framework emerges wherein the artist's broader motivations and the specific meanings of his paintings prove more amenable to elucidation

,1960 Transatlantic Encounters Michele Greet,2018-01-01 Paris was the artistic capital of the world in the 1920s and 30s providing a home and community for the French and international avant garde Latin American artists contributed to and reinterpreted nearly every major modernist movement that took place in the creative center of Paris between World War I and World War II including Cubism Diego Rivera Surrealism Antonio Berni and Roberto Matta and Constructivism Joaquin Torres Garcia Yet their participation in the Paris art scene has remained largely overlooked until now This book examines their collective role surveying the work of both household names and an extraordinary array of lesser known artists Michele Greet illuminates the significant ways in which Latin American expatriates helped establish modernism and conversely how a Parisian environment influenced the development of Latin American artistic identity century's longest lasting art movement Surreal Things Victoria and Albert Museum, 2007-05-15 Surreal Things is the first book to examine in depth the influence of Surrealism on the wider fields of design and the decorative arts and its sometimes uneasy relationship with the commercial world. In Parts I and II the work of artists and designers such as Hans Jean Arp, Alexander Calder, Max Ernst, Rene Magritte, Joan Miro, Meret Oppenheim, Man Ray and Elsa Schiaparelli provides the means to explore Surrealism's relationship with the material world while 45 star objects are given particular consideration in Part III. The range of objects covered in this book spans painting, sculpture, works on paper, jewellery, ceramics, textiles, furniture, fashion, film and photography.

Latina, 2004-05 Transmission Betti-Sue Hertz, San Diego Museum of Art, 2006 A comprehensive examination of the relationship between the work of renowned surrealist Roberto Matta (1912-2002) and his son, conceptual artist Gordon Matta-Clark (1943-1978).

Conversations on Sculpture Glenn Harper, Twylene Moyer, 2007 A unique collection of interviews with contemporary sculptors drawn from the 25 year history of Sculpture magazine. Conversations on Sculpture offers a valuable overview of three dimensional art at the end of the twentieth century and the beginning of the twenty first century. The 43 interviews in Conversations on Sculpture capture the wide ranging possibilities that characterize contemporary sculpture. The book includes an introduction by Robert Hobbs discussing the sculptors interviewed and also the value of the interview format in exploring contemporary art and artists. There are full color illustrations throughout. The second book in the Perspectives on Contemporary Sculpture series from the newly inaugurated ISC Press, Conversations on Sculpture includes interviews with Richard Serra, Maya Lin, Richard Deacon, Wolfgang Laib, James Turrell, Xu Bing, Liza Lou, Mario Merz, Richard Tuttle, Maurizio Cattelan and other prominent and emerging artists from the US, China, the UK, Italy, Germany, Cuba, Argentina, Nigeria, Portugal, Brazil, Belgium, Poland, the Netherlands, Korea, Spain and Ghana. The two volumes, A Sculpture Reader and Conversations on Sculpture are an invaluable history of contemporary sculpture, installation art, new media and public art.

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2005
Roberto Matta, Paintings and Drawings, 1937-1959 Matta, 1997 Shining Spirit Alison B. Amick, Oklahoma City Museum of Art, 2007 With styles ranging from traditional to abstract, the works in this volume span late nineteenth century and twentieth century American art and include examples from both Europe and Latin America. The common thread is excellence. Many of the paintings play on the boundaries between reality and fantasy, contain elements of humor or satire or are rendered in a highly colorful, expressive style which does not directly imitate the natural world.
