How My Grandfather Stole a Shoe \(And Survived the Holocaust in Ukraine\)

Julie Masis,2025-09-30 During World War II thousands of Moldovan Jews were imprisoned in the Obodovka ghetto located in the Romanian occupied part of Ukraine Unlike the areas under German control where Jews faced systematic extermination survival rates were marginally higher under Romanian occupation as soldiers there did not pursue mass executions with bullets Despite this most of the ghetto s inhabitants succumbed to starvation and disease during the harsh first winter Journalist Julie Masis captures this lesser known chapter of the Holocaust through the memories of her grandfather Shlomo Masis a survivor who lived to the remarkable age of 102 His recollections reveal stories of resilience including how some Ukrainians aided the Jews in the ghetto Masis also delves into a poignant family legend about a German medic who reportedly fell in love with her Jewish grandmother This narrative sheds light on both the horrors and the unexpected human connections that emerged during one of history s darkest periods

Mary Roberts Rinehart's first two novels, The Circular Staircase and The Man in Lower Ten, inaugurate The Essential Rinehart Collection, a new book series destined to entertain readers for many years. The Circular Staircase tells the story of how Miss Cornelia Van Gorder lost her mind, deserted her domestic gods in the city, took a furnished house for the summer out of town, and found herself involved in one of those mysterious crimes that keep newspapers and detectives happy and prosperous. The Man in Lower Ten is a legal thriller featuring a detective who builds up a network of clues that absolutely incriminate three entirely different people, only one of whom can be guilty. These novels, which combine mystery and adventure, demonstrate Rinehart's tremendously vivid powers as a storyteller. Well written and fast-paced, these mysteries will leave you eager to read the other volumes in this series.
