Other Than Identity:

Narrative Identity as a Condition for Authentic Legal Subjectivity Bartosz Wojciechowski, 2024-10-26 This book argues that omitting the component of narrative creates an irresolvable antinomy concerning the identity of the subject between the subject and identical copies of itself in different situations or between it and the identical subject as a substantial illusion the elimination of which reveals the pure multitude of desires emotions and perceptions The starting point of the considerations presented here is the conviction that knowledge of one's own desires and preferred values is obtained by articulating a narrative identity through social interactions and mutually determined moral horizons that presuppose shared meanings and the possibility of consensus The book emphasizes the significance of personal narration and identity formation but also points out that collective narrative which is culturally and traditionally rooted is also one's own narrative It focuses on the issue of identity which is discussed today in numerous contexts and the understanding of which according to the author has important consequences including for the legal aspects of our lives as it concerns for example the rights of LGBTQ people or entities marginalized or excluded for various reasons The titular narrative identity of an authentic legal entity is related to opening ourselves to others but also to ourselves The interdisciplinary research perspective adopted in the book combines literary aspects philosophical sociological and theoretical legal considerations with an analysis of the jurisprudence of European tribunals

Identity Theft in Today's World Megan McNally, 2011-11-16 This book accurately identifies the various forms of identity theft in simple easy to understand terms exposes exaggerated and erroneous information and explains how everyone can take action to protect themselves Identity theft is a classic crime with a modern and perhaps decidedly American twist The rise of technology over the past few decades and its influence on the processes of modernization and globalization has created many new opportunities for identity theft both locally and internationally Moreover this process has transformed the nature of identity from something largely personal to something almost purely financial Although identity theft is not a global crime per se it does pose a pervasive and universal threat that will need to be acknowledged and addressed by many nations throughout the world In this text author Megan McNally examines the concept of identity theft in universal terms in order to understand what it is how it is accomplished and what the nations of the world can do individually or collectively to prevent it or respond to it The Cambridge Handbook of Identity Michael Bamberg,Carolyn Demuth,Meike Watzlawik,2021-11-11 While identity is a key concept in psychology and the social sciences researchers have used and understood this concept in diverse and often contradictory ways The Cambridge Handbook of Identity presents the lively multidisciplinary field of identity research as working around three central themes i difference and sameness between people ii people s agency in the world and iii how identities can change or remain stable over time The chapters in this collection explore approaches behind these themes followed by a close look at their methodological implications while examples from a number of applied domains demonstrate how identity research follows concrete analytical procedures Featuring an international team of contributors who enrich psychological research with historical cultural and political perspectives the handbook also explores contemporary issues of identity politics diversity intersectionality and inclusion It is an essential resource for all scholars and students working on identity theory and research [Philosophical Letters of David K. Massimiliano Carrara Pierdaniele Giaretta What do we do when we do metaphysics The aim of this introduction is to give a provisional answer to this question and then to explain the subtitle of the volume It is easy to observe that when we do metaphysics we engage in a linguistic activity mainly consisting of uttering declarative sentences that are not very clear to most people That is true but of course it is not very informative What do we speak of when we do metaphysics A traditional answer could be we speak of what things really are so suggesting that things can appear in a way that is different from the way they really are So understood metaphysics is about the sense or the senses of real being A question that immediately arises is whether the sense of being is unique or is different for different types of things Another question is whether it is possible that something could appear to be but really not be Modern analytic metaphysicians usually answer that the sense of being is unique while acknowledging that there are different kinds of things and that to say that something could appear to be but really not be is a plain contradiction unless what is understood is that it could appear to us that there is something having such and such features but viii Individuals Essence and Identity really there is no such a thing memoirs , "Code of Massachusetts regulations, 2010" ,2010 Archival snapshot of entire looseleaf Code of Massachusetts Regulations held by the Social Law Library of Massachusetts as of January 2020 "Code of Massachusetts regulations, 2003" ,2003 Archival snapshot of entire looseleaf Code of Massachusetts Regulations held by the Social Law Library of Massachusetts as of January 2020 "Code of Massachusetts regulations, 2014" ,2014 Archival snapshot of entire looseleaf Code of Massachusetts Regulations held by the Social Law Library of Massachusetts as of January 2020 "Code of Massachusetts regulations, 1993" ,1993 Archival snapshot of entire looseleaf Code of Massachusetts Regulations held by the Social Law Library of Massachusetts as of January 2020 Mind ,1886 A quarterly review of philosophy Supreme Court of the State of New York Appellate Division First Department , Federal Tax Bulletins Commerce Clearing House,1922 Theosophical Outlook ,1916 The Encyclopædia Britannica Hugh Chisholm, James Louis Garvin, 1926 The Encyclopaedia Britannica ,1910 American Journal of Mathematics ,1906 The American Journal of Mathematics publishes research papers and articles of broad appeal covering the major areas of contemporary mathematics
