The Ottawa Valley Portfolio Pat Keough,Rosemarie Keough,1986      Citizen-Centered Cities, Volume II Paul R. Messinger,2017-03-22 Modern cities are increasingly involving citizens in decisions that affect them This trend is a part of a movement toward a new standard of city management and planning falling under the names public involvement public engagement collaborative governance civic renewal participatory democracy and citizen centered change City administrators have long focused on attaining excellence in their technical domains they are now expected to achieve an equal standard of excellence in public involvement Toward this end Citizen Centered Cities provides a body of experience about public involvement that would take years for municipal administrators to accumulate on the job The twelve city studies in the present volume were written to provide city administrators with a comparative perspective about how U S and Canadian cities carry out their public involvement activities The opening chapter summarizes general themes and salient differences in approaches to public involvement across twelve cities The close government academic cooperation required to carry out this project builds on an innovative partnership between the City of Edmonton and the University of Alberta called the Center for Public Involvement      Canadiana ,1989      Arch Notes ,1990      Who's who and why ,1912      Forthcoming Books

A History of Photography in Canada, Volume 1 Martha Langford,2025-11-15 From early reports of the invention to its wide application during World War I the idea of photography created anticipation and participation in the modern world The first volume of A History of Photography in Canada captures this phenomenon by looking at hundreds of photographs generated in and about Canada in the making and by listening to the chords they struck in the collective imagination Emphasizing technological readiness and cultural eagerness for the medium Martha Langford shows how photography served ideals of progress and improvement as Canada's settler society looked to master the world by seizing its visible traces The imposition of these programs on Indigenous Peoples and indentured labourers is confronted throughout this volume which offers both narratives and counternarratives of subjectification Reproducing images of people places events and objects from the unceded territories of the First Nations Inuit and Métis from British North America and from the Dominion of Canada and the Dominion of Newfoundland Langford asks where and when photographs were taken why and by whom How did the making and preservation of a photograph alter the circumstances in which it was produced and how did this affect individual and collective consciousness Alongside accomplished portraits landscapes still lifes and their vernacular counterparts the book draws glimmers of photographic experience from treatises and doggerel official reports and personal diaries newspapers magazines letters and travelogues Anticipation to Participation chronicles eight decades of reinvention and repurposing from a wondrous discovery to the wide adoption of a basic tool for knowledge gathering artmaking and journaling Langford's sweeping narrative rewrites the history of photography from the bottom up vividly expanding the definition of photographic experience    American Bookseller, 1988    Canada Lumberman, 1926    Publishers Weekly, 1990    Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1993    Whitaker's Book List, 1988    Thumper Donald S.
