José Martí's "Our America" Jeffrey Grant Belnap, Raul A. Fernandez, 1998 Considerable attention has been given to Cuban poet essayist and activist José Martí's 1891 essay Nuestra América but relatively little has been paid to the rest of the journalistic work that Martí produced during his fourteen year exile in the United States In José Martí's Our America Jeffrey Belnap and Raul Fernandez present essays from Latin American Caribbean and U.S. based scholars who consider Martí's rich and underexplored body of work and position Martí as an emblem of New American studies A Cuban exile from 1881 to 1895 Martí was a correspondent writing in New York for various Latin American newspapers Grasping the significance of rising U.S. imperial power he came to understand the Americas as a complex system of kindred but not equal national formations whose cultural and political integrity was threatened by the overbearing aggressiveness of the United States This collection explores how in his journalistic work Martí critiques U.S. racism imperialism and capitalism warns Latin America of impending U.S. geographical cultural and economic annexation and calls for recognition of the diversity of America's cultural voices Reinforcing Martí's hemispheric vision with essays by a wide range of scholars who investigate his analysis of the United States his significance as a Latino outsider and his analyses of Latin American cultural politics this volume explores the affinities between Martí's thought and current reexaminations of what it means to study America José Martí's Our America offers a new understanding of Martí's ambiguous and problematic relation with the United States and will engage scholars and students in American Latin American and Latino studies as well as those interested in cultural postcolonial gender and ethnic studies Contributors Jeffrey Belnap Raul Fernandez Ada Ferrer Susan Gillman George Lipsitz Oscar Martí David Noble Donald E.
