Our Friends:

The Things We Do to Our Friends Heather Darwent, 2023-01-10 INTERNATIONAL BESTSELLER She s an outsider desperate to belong but the cost of entry might be her deepest secret in this intoxicating debut about a clique of dangerously ambitious students perfect for fans of dark academia stories like The Secret History and If We Were Villains Cosmopolitan One of the best suspense debuts I ve read in years Heather Darwent delivers one artful tease after another until you are completely lost in this labyrinth of clever women and obsessive friendship Julia Heaberlin bestselling author of We Are All the Same in the Dark Edinburgh Scotland a moody city of labyrinthine alleyways oppressive fog and buried history the ultimate destination for someone with something to hide Perfect for Clare then who arrives utterly alone and yearning to reinvent herself And what better place to conceal the secrets of her past than at the university in the heart of the fabled cobblestoned Old Town When Clare meets Tabitha a charismatic beautiful and intimidatingly rich girl from her art history class she knows she s destined to become friends with her and her exclusive circle raffish Samuel shrewd Ava and pragmatic Imogen Clare is immediately drawn into their libertine world of sophisticated dinner parties and summers in France The new life she always envisioned for herself has seemingly begun Then Tabitha reveals a little project she s been working on one that she needs Clare s help with Even though it goes against everything Clare has tried to repent for Even though their intimacy begins to darken into codependence But as Clare starts to realize just what her friends are capable of it s already too late Because they ve taken the plunge They re so close to attaining everything they want And there s no going back Reimagining the classic themes of obsession and ambition with an original and sinister edge The Things We Do to Our Friends is a seductive thriller about the toxic battle between those who have and those who covet between the desire to truly belong and the danger of being truly known Godey's Lady's Book ,1843 The Friend ,1879 Humans and Robots Sven Nyholm, 2020-03-09

Can robots perform actions make decisions collaborate with humans be our friends perhaps fall in love or potentially harm us Even before these things truly happen ethical and philosophical questions already arise The reason is that we humans have a tendency to spontaneously attribute minds and agency to anything even remotely humanlike Moreover some people already say that robots should be our companions and have rights Others say that robots should be slaves This book tackles emerging ethical issues about human beings robots and agency head on It explores the ethics of creating robots that are or appear to be decision making agents From military robots to self driving cars to care robots or even sex robots equipped with artificial intelligence how should we interpret the apparent agency of such robots This book argues that we need to explore how human beings can best coordinate and collaborate with robots in responsible ways It investigates ethically important differences between human agency and robot agency to work towards an ethics of responsible human robot interaction

Being Amongst Others Eric Chelstrom, 2009-03-26 Our world can be a bewildering place The sense of awe and wonder at the states of affairs in which we find ourselves immersed give rise to philosophical questions Philosophical reflection is a critical attempt to come to grips with our place in the world and the various problems we encounter in respect to the complexities encountered in everyday life In the most basic terms phenomenology is the study of the structures and relations of phenomena Phenomenology begins from a descriptive analysis of our experiences of the world It grants precedent to the first person perspective how phenomena appear to consciousness There are any number of problems related to the plenitude of kinds of experiences which confront us through the course of our lives in addition to the structure of consciousness itself This volume presents a variety of views on a number of the phenomena of our everyday lives offering positions on such things from the nature of consciousness to the structures of religious or political experiences Its appeal however should not be limited to philosophers alone given that all persons can relate to the subject matter of the essays For instance one author asks what is friendship The present work may also be understood as a gesture toward bridging the division between the valuable insights of continental and analytic philosophical traditions The authors include a combination of established academics such as Jeffrey Wattles the best selling author of The Golden Rule and young scholars from varied philosophical backgrounds This collection is divided into four sections I Foundational Elements of Experience II The Experiencing Subject What is it to be a Subject III Amongst Others The Social World and IV Social Objects and Institutions Each section represents a level of experience from the most basic structures of experience to the subject s experience of the world and objects in it to experiences and interactions with others ending at the results of the codifications of certain social practices and beliefs The sections treat their respective topics principally even if they share material with other essays Our experiences of the life world the world of human praxis contain a multiplicity of elements the divisions of this work are meant to demarcate various types of phenomena not to offer any definitive thesis regarding a hierarchy or structure of relations The Golden Harp;
