Our Motherland:

My Motherland Thanwardas Lilaram Vaswani, 1921 The Crescent and the Eagle George W. Gawrych, 2006-10-25 The Crescent and the Eagle examines the awakening of Albanian national identity from the end of the 19th century to the outbreak of the First World War a period of intense nationalism in the Balkans from an Ottoman perspective Drawing on Ottoman and European archival material the book undermines the customary negative stereotypes of Ottoman rule offering a more nuanced interpretation Gawrych provides a critical but objective examination of the evolution of government policies toward Albanians from attempts to mould them into an iron barrier to the establishment of a uniform system of administration He argues that this was a result of a complicated set of conflicting allegiances and identities rather than a simply adversarial struggle between government imposition of policy and Albanian resistance The author also analyses the general problems of endemic violence and misadministration at the provincial level and examines Albanian efforts to gain nationality rights and maintain local privileges and tribal autonomy Weaving his analysis of these events into a chronological framework he concludes that Albanian independence resulted from a confluence of foreign and domestic developments rather than from the design and will of the Albanians themselves This stimulating study offers many fresh insights into the dynamics of power within the Ottoman Empire and contributes a new perspective to the study of the development of Albanian nationalism Somewhere in France Frank Ellis, 1918 The Quest ,1923 The Gleam Sir Francis Edward Younghusband, 1923 The story of Svabhava whose true name the author does not disclose and of other men and women of the present times who have sought true religion The Philippine Republic ,1926 The Congregationalist and Advance ,1918 Taiwan Communique and Separation of Powers United States.
