Matins Lauds And Vespers For St Davids Day

Terence Bailey, László Dobszay

Matins, Lauds, and Vespers for St. David's Day Owain Tudor Edwards, 1990 This book looks at the only Welsh antiphonal known and discusses in particular the material for services celebrating the memory of the Welsh patron saint The book has a full listing and description of the contents of the Penpont Antiphonal National Library of Wales MS 20541 E and discusses the significance of the Office of St David The chants and the literary text are described and discussed supported by full transcriptions of the musical and literary texts and by facsimile reproduction of the manuscript folios The office is considered in its historical perspective as evidence of the active cultivation of music in Wales during the Middle Ages and for its relationship to other similar late medieval offices and to Rhigyfarch's Life of St David The Use of Hereford William Smith, 2017-05-15 The Use of Hereford a local variation of the Roman rite was one of the diocesan liturgies of medieval England before their abolition and replacement by the Book of Common Prayer in 1549 Unlike the widespread Use of Sarum the Use of Hereford was confined principally to its diocese which helped to maintain its individuality until the Reformation This study seeks to catalogue and evaluate all the known surviving sources of the Use of Hereford with particular reference to the missals and gradual which so far have received little attention In addition to these a variety of other material has been examined including a number of little known or unknown important fragments of early Hereford service books dismembered at the Reformation and now hidden away as binding or other scrap in libraries and record offices This is the fullest examination of Hereford liturgical sources ever undertaken and may stimulate similar and much needed studies of other diocesan uses in particular Sarum and York As well as describing in detail the various manuscript sources the rare single edition printed Hereford texts the missals and breviaries are also discussed Unlike books of the Sarum and York rites these one offs were never revised and reissued In addition to the examination of these sources William Smith discusses the possible origins of the rite and provides an analysis of the Hereford liturgical calendar of the festa including those of the cathedral's patron St Ethelbert and the no less famous St Thomas Cantilupe that helped to make Hereford use so distinctive Music in Welsh Culture Before 1650 Sally Harper, 2017-07-05 Music in Wales has long been a neglected area Scholars have been deterred both by the need for a knowledge of the Welsh language and by the fact that an oral tradition in Wales persisted far later than in other parts of Britain resulting in a limited number of sources with conventional notation Sally Harper provides the first serious study of Welsh music before 1650 and draws on a wide range of sources in Welsh Latin and English to illuminate early musical practice This book challenges and refutes two widely held assumptions that music in Wales before 1650 is impoverished and elusive and that the extant sources are too obscure and fragmentary to warrant serious study Harper demonstrates that there is a far wider body of source material than is generally realized comprising liturgical manuscripts archival materials chronicles and retrospective histories inventories of pieces and players vernacular poetry and treatises This book examines three principal areas the unique tradition of cerdd dant literally the music of the string for harp and crwth the Latin liturgy in Wales and its embellishment and Anglicised sacred and secular materials from c 1580 which show Welsh music mirroring English practice Taken together the primary material presented in this book bears witness to a flourishing and distinctive musical tradition of considerable cultural significance aspects of which have an important impact on wider musical practice beyond Wales

Essays on the History of English Music in Honour of John Caldwell Emma Hornby, David Nicholas Maw, 2010 The major themes of the essays in this collection reflect the work of the distinguished scholar John Caldwell professor of music at Oxford University and a composer in his own right There is a strong focus on early music with contributions considering the medieval carol sources for seventeenth and eighteenth century harpsichord music and the transmission of fifteenth century English music to the Continent but they range right up to the twentieth century with an examination of music in Oxford All are concerned in one way or another with themes which recur in Professor Caldwell's scholarship sources style performance and historiography Pub desc

Music and Liturgy in Medieval Britain and Ireland Ann Buckley, Lisa Colton, 2022-01-06 From music written in praise of Irish Scottish Welsh and English saints to the selection of Gospel readings by the Dominicans this book introduces readers to the richness of medieval liturgical culture from across Britain and Ireland Each of its three main sections opens with a chapter that offers a contextual frame for its key themes With contributions from leading experts in pre Reformation music and its sources the book's focus on Insular liturgy rather than that of only one part of Britain or Ireland allows readers to learn about the devotional political and creative networks at play in shaping liturgical practices personal secular monastic lay and professional The opening part includes broader discussions of Uses including that of Salisbury and case studies explore Insular witnesses to devotional activities in honour of both local cults and widely known figures including St Columba St Margaret St Katherine and the Magi

Hystoria Gweryddon Yr Almaen Jane Cartwright, 2020 Medieval Welsh literature is rich in hagiographical lore and numerous Welsh versions of the Lives of saints are extant recording the legends of both native and universal saints Although the cult of St Ursula and the 11 000 virgins is well known internationally this is the first time that a scholarly edition of her Welsh legend has been published in its entirety Hystoria Gweryddon yr Almaen was adapted into Welsh by Sir Huw Pennant and it survives in a unique manuscript Aberystwyth National Library of Wales Peniarth MS 182 c 1509 1514 The edition is accompanied by a full glossary as well as detailed textual and linguistic notes and information on the development and transmission of the legend The peculiarities of the Welsh text are considered in the introduction as well as the similarities it shares with other versions The volume also considers the wider cultural context of the legend and discusses the Welsh cult of St Ursula and her companions Welsh tradition claims that Ursula was Welsh and she became associated with the church at Llangwryfon in Ceredigion and other minor Welsh chapels

Medieval Vision Peter Lord, 2003 The final volume in Peter Lord's series on the visual aspects of Welsh culture focuses upon the period extending from the collapse of Roman government in the fifth century to the Renaissance of the fifteenth and early sixteenth centuries
