Raw Histories Elizabeth Edwards, 2021-01-07 Photographs have had an integral and complex role in many anthropological contexts from fieldwork to museum exhibitions This book explores how approaching anthropological photographs as history can offer both theoretical and empirical insights into these roles Photographs are thought to make problematic history because of their ambiguity and rawness In short they have too many meanings The author refutes this prejudice by exploring through a series of case studies precisely the potential of this raw quality to open up new perspectives Taking the nature of photography as her starting point the author argues that photographs are not merely pictures of things but are part of a dynamic and fluid historical dialogue which is active not only in the creation of the photograph but in its subsequent social biography in archive and museum spaces past and present In this context the book challenges any uniform view of anthropological photography and its resulting archives Drawing on a variety of examples largely from the Pacific the book demonstrates how close readings of photographs reveal not only western agendas but also many layers of differing historical and cross cultural experiences That is photographs can spring leaks to show an alternative viewpoint These themes are developed further by examining the dynamics of photographs and issues around them as used by contemporary artists and curators and presented to an increasingly varied public This book convincingly demonstrates photographs potential to articulate histories other than those of their immediate appearances a potential that can no longer be neglected by scholars and institutions

Water Histories and Spatial Archaeology Michael J. Harrower, 2016-05-03 This book offers a new interpretation of the spatial political environmental dynamics of water and irrigation in long term histories of arid regions It compares ancient Southwest Arabia 3500 BC AD 600 with the American West 2000 BC AD 1950 in global context to illustrate similarities and differences among environmental cultural political and religious dynamics of water It combines archaeological exploration and field studies of farming in Yemen with social theory and spatial technologies including satellite imagery Global Positioning System GPS and Geographic Information Systems GIS mapping In both ancient Yemen and the American West agricultural production focused not where rain fed agriculture was possible but in hyper arid areas where massive state constructed irrigation schemes politically and ideologically validated state sovereignty While shaped by profound differences and contingencies ancient Yemen and the American West are mutually informative in clarifying human geographies of water that are important to understandings of America Arabia and contemporary conflicts between civilizations deemed East and West

The Discovery of Islands J. G. A. Pocock, 2005-09-08 The Discovery of Islands consists of a series of linked essays in British history written by one of the world's leading historians of political thought and published over the past three decades Its purpose is to present British history as that of several nations interacting with and sometimes seceding from an imperial state The commentary presents this history as that of an archipelago expanding across oceans to the Antipodes Both New Zealand history and the author's New Zealand heritage inform this vision presenting

British history as oceanic and global complementing and occasionally criticising the presentation of that history as European Professor Pocock's interpretation of British history has been hugely influential in recent years making The Discovery of Islands a resource of immense value for historians of Britain and the world The History of Economic Thought: A Concise Treatise for Business, Law, and Public Policy Volume I Robert Ashford, Stefan J. Padfield, 2017-04-04 This two volume concise treatise on the history of economic thought is accessibly written for readers interested in business law and public policy

Kings' Sagas and Norwegian History Shami Ghosh, 2011-09-23 Surveying the past two decades of scholarship on the medieval historiography of Norway this book provides a critical appraisal of the principal issues involved in the study of the primary sources and the key areas of scholarship and future research The Concept of History Dmitri Nikulin, 2017-01-26 The Concept of History reflects on the presuppositions behind the contemporary understanding of history that often remain implicit and not spelled out It is a critique of the modern understanding of history that presents it as universal and teleological progressively moving forward to an end Although few contemporary philosophers and historians maintain the view that there is strict universality and teleology in history the remnants of these positions still affect our understanding of history But if history is not universal and singular evolving toward an objective universal end it should be possible to admit of multiple histories some of which we appropriate as our own An another important aspect of this book is that it provides an account of history that is itself both historical and rooted in attempts to narrate and explain history from its inception in antiquity The book seeks to establish features or constituents of history that might be found in any historical account and might themselves be considered historical invariants in history A history of the Scottish people from the earliest times

Thomas Napier Thomson, 1893 The History of Philosophy, from Thales to Comte Lewes, 1880 The History of Spain and Portugal Miss Corner (Julia), 1850 Time Travel in Popular Media Matthew Jones, Joan Ormrod, 2015-03-27 In recent years numerous films television series comic books graphic novels and video games have featured time travel narratives with characters jumping backward forward and laterally through time No rules govern time travel in these stories Some characters move by machine some by magic others by unexplained means Sometime travelers can alter the timeline while others are prevented from causing temporal aberrations The fluid forms of imagined time travel have fascinated audiences and prompted debate since at least the 19th century What is behind our fascination with time travel What does it mean to be out of one's own era How do different media tell these stories and what does this reveal about the media's relationship to time This collection of new essays the first to address time travel across a range of media answers these questions by locating time travel narratives within their cultural historical and philosophical contexts Texts discussed include Doctor Who The Terminator The Georgian House Save the Date Back to the Future Inception Source Code and others

The Martyrs of Spain and the Liberators of Holland Dolores Cazalla, Author of Chronicles of the Schönberg-Cotta Family, Elizabeth Rundle Charles, 1870 Persian Literature: Qur'ānic literature history and biography. 2 v. - v. 2; pt. 1

Mathematics. Weights and measures. Astronomy and astrology; pt. 2. Medicine; pt. 3. Encyclopaedias and miscellanies. Arts and crafts. Science. Occult arts ,1927 Static Analysis Radhia Cousot,Matthieu Martel,2010-09-09 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 16th International Symposium on Static Analysis SAS 2010 held in Perpignan France in September 2010 The conference was co located with 3 affiliated workshops NSAD 2010 Workshop on Numerical and Symbolic Abstract Domains SASB 2010 Workshop on Static Analysis and Systems Biology and TAPAS 2010 Tools for Automatic Program Analysis The 22 revised full papers presented together with 4 invited talks were carefully reviewed and selected from 58 submissions The papers address all aspects of static analysis including abstract domains bug detection data flow analysis logic programming systems analysis type inference cache analysis flow analysis verification abstract testing compiler optimization and program verification Speaking in the Past Tense Herb Wyile,2006-12-15 Speaking in the Past Tense participates in an expanding critical dialogue on the writing of historical fiction providing a series of reflections on the process from the perspective of those souls intrepid enough to step onto what is practically by definition contested territory Herb Wyile from the Introduction The extermination of the Beothuk the exploration of the Arctic the experiences of soldiers in the trenches during World War I the foibles of Canada s longest serving prime minister the Ojibway sniper who is credited with 378 wartime kills these are just some of the people and events discussed in these candid and wide ranging interviews with eleven authors whose novels are based on events in Canadian history These sometimes startling conversations take the reader behind the scenes of the novels and into the minds of their authors Through them we explore the writers motives for writing the challenges they faced in gathering information and presenting it in fictional form the sometimes hostile reaction they faced after publication and perhaps most interestingly the stories that didn t make it into their novels Speaking in the Past Tense provides fascinating insights into the construction of national historical narratives and myths both those familiar to us and those that are still being written The Encyclopædia Britannica ,1891 Vyner: the family history. Revised ,1887 Indian Antiquary ,1892 Monasticon Hibernicum Mervyn Archdall, "The" Life of John Milton David Masson,1877 Paul on the Resurrection of Christ Charles Marsh Mead,1910
